Yad Vashem: Shoah Names Database

THE CENTRAL DATABASE OF SHOAH VICTIMS' NAMES VER. B-110.3

Last Victim Name
  First Name
  Date

Yad Vashem, together with its partners, has collected and recorded the names and biographical details of millions of victims of systematic anti-Jewish persecution during the Holocaust (Shoah) period. Four out of five of the six million Jews murdered by the Nazis and their accomplices are commemorated here. This database includes information regarding victims of the Shoah. Those who were murdered and some whose fate has yet to be determined.

The names of nearly one and a half million victims remain unknown – and time is running out. It is our collective moral imperative to persist in our efforts to recover their names and restore their identities.

Kielortallee 25

Friederike or Frieda was the first of seven children born to the cigar maker Hermann Nathan (b. 1832 in Schleswig) and his wife Seraphine, née Schöning (b. 1833 in Hamburg). The family had settled in Schleswig in the 18th century. The couple had married in Wandsbek in 1857. The family apparently lived in good circumstances; the father belonged to the executive board of the Jewish Congregation in Schleswig. In 1885, the couple moved with five children to Hamburg; a daughter had previously died; a son moved to Munich.

In the Hansa City, the male members of the family worked in the prosperous tobacco business. The father ran a tobacco factory there since 1886; his son Martin (b. 1863) became independent in the same trade, but apparently not as successfully. Carl (1864–1953) was active as a tobacco broker and emigrated in 1939 to the USA, as did his brother Siegfried (b. 1870), who like the eldest brother Jacob (b. 1861) was a businessman.
