| What is your main goal in attending this program? | Acquire new skills and a better understanding of how to use resources so be more productive in my research. |
| Consultation 1: Name of individual to be discussed | Father of James William Fields |
| Pertinent information about individual | James is my great grandfather. B 7/13/1873 in New Orleans, LA and d 11/6/1929 in Long Beach, CA. He was married to Laura Jane Johnson. Their youngest daughter, Lorraine, was my grandmother. The problem I'm having is with his father. I know his mother was Margaret Rose Mears. B 1/18/1849 in Meridian, MS and d 4/11/1915 in Oklahoma City, OK. I've been told by family members that James' father was Erastus F. Fields, b 1839 in MS and d in 1875 in New Orleans, LA. Their only child was my great grandfather, James. |
| Specific question(s) or goal(s) for consultation | I have been unable to confirm if Erastus is his father and find any of his ancestors. I have found an Erastus F Fields using military records but no other information on him seems to be available or any of his ancestors that I can find. |
| Briefly cite sources already reviewed | I have found an Erastus F Fields using military records for the Civil War serving in the Massachusetts Calvary. Since that was his place of birth and he would have been in his 20s at that time I trust this source. I have also found an Erastus B Fields in the 1860 Census for Arkansas but the age would have put him b in 1835 so I don't have much faith in that source. |
| Any Additional Comments | I wish I had more. |

| What is your main goal in attending this program? | Any of these are fine: Expanding knowledge about some of my own pedigree branches that have been tricky; using sources that are not available online; working more on the John Coy of MD/KY problem; choosing a new DAR patriot of mine to prove; finding Nancy Day. |
| Consultation 1: Name of individual to be discussed | Nancy Day/Dayl/David. aka Caroline Day aka Katherine Day |
| Pertinent information about individual | Nancy Dayl/Day? b. NC between 1801-1809 m. Thomas Robertson b. 24 Oct 1801, Amherst Co VA on 18 Dec 1825 Blount TN. On the face of the marriage doc she is Nancy Dayl- or it could be Day-with a handwriting flourish. When the doc was folded, on the reverse the clerk wrote the surname as David. When two of her daughters died, the informant said the deceased mother's name was Katherine Day on one, and Caroline Day on the other. So I am leaning toward DAY as the next focus of my search. DAYL has gone no place for years of search. |
| Specific question(s) or goal(s) for consultation | Which of her names is correct? Who are Nancy Day's parents? She is reported as b. in NC. Is DAY a Quaker name? [two of Nancy daughters have later Quaker connection (Hopewell MM in Indiana), however I also suspect the Quaker influence may be due to their sister-in-law who was definitely a Quaker (b. Mary Ann Outland, Rich Square NC). to check in DAR library: TN s1 v96 259 Nancy Robertson Bible Rec (Robinson Fam) TN s1 v 139 140 Day NC s1 v 278 41 Day NC s1 v 168 91 Day NC s1 v 293 41 Day NC s1 v386 119 Nancy G Day |
| Briefly cite sources already reviewed | marriage license cited above 1850 census District 19, Edgar IL- Nancy appears by name. Age is hard to read 41, 43, 48. POB is NC. This is the only place self-reported POB. Later her daughters give POB as TN. In 1830 (Western Division Blount Co TN) she is female aged 20-29 and in 1840 (Vermillion IL) she is 30-39. the sons' Fold 3 records death records not available in IL and birth records for TN not available for years needed quaker surname search of David/Dail/Dale/Deal/Dayl with no luck NC Bible records by Martin, by surname (but probably not DAY) NC wills a testator index 165-1900- probably not using DAY american ancestors: Dayl, David searched NEW RECENT: Family Search NC marriages DAY:need to search these 6 families: Valentine Day, 4 August 1767Rowan, North Carolina, to Eve Reigher Labon Day, 20 July 1793, Wilkes, North Carolina, to Mary McKensy Henry Day, 28 March 1788, Caswell, North Carolina, to Margery Cate John Day, 27 March 1779, Wilkes, North Carolina, to Mary Stallings Vincent Day, 3 January 1809, Granville, North Carolina to Elley Louise Huddleston Thomas Day, 31 January 1803, Stokes, North Carolina, United States to Polly Ring |

|---------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Any Additional Comments | clearly this is case of migration from VA through NC and TN to IL and IN and my own branch eventually to KS. All four of Nancy and Thomas Robertson's sons fought in the civil war for the Union: Benjamin William, Anthony J, James Wesley and Thomas Riley Robertson it is only last week that I had my AHA moment and realize she might be DAY and not DAYL (as she is listed in indexes and published sources!). I will show you the handwriting and see what you think. |

| Consultation 2: Name of individual to be discussed | Thomas Padgett |
| Pertinent Information 2 | b. ca 1819 in NJ or PA. m.1842 in North Strabane, Washington PA, Agnes Nancy Lutton b. 1822 Strabane, Washington PA. He d. after 1865 prop Ogle County. She d. 20 May 1852 North Strabane. Issue with Agnes Nancy: James L Padgett b. 1 Mar 1843 Robert Miller Padgett b. 9 Dec 1844 wife 2: Charlotte Detwiler b. abt 1818 with child Olivia b. abt 1840 (probably from 1st marriage) issue of Thomas and Charlotte: Sarah Padgett abt 1855 Charles Evans Padgett 2 Jan 1858 |
| Specific Questions 2 | Did he serve in the civil War? Who are his parents? Is the Thomas Padgett b. 1820 NJ and in Los Angeles CA in 1879?? (ancestry hint) Is this my guy? cannot find any of the family in 1870 census. Are there city directories for Ogle county for the 1870? Family bibles for Padgett? |
| Briefly Cite Sources 2 | Known: 1850 census North Strabane PA -he is listed with wife and two sons 1855 History of Ogle county- he is a hardware merchant 1860 Taylor, Ogle IL- is listed with wife Charlotte and 5 kids- one step, his first 2 and 2 new ones 1861 and 1862 newspapers.com- tells of him getting in a fight Ogle County 1863- registers for Civil War draft age 43- did he serve? 1865 IL census- he is there age 40-50 Possibles: checked Padgett 1840 census-found 3 possibilities- one in PA, 2 in NJ and ruled out 2. Fold 3-I find 8 other Padgetts- not Thomas |

| Consultation 3: Name of individual to be discussed | John Coy of MD and KY (separate tree) |
| Pertinent Information 3 | John Coy Sr b. abt 1730. wife unknown. loads of kids- 3 of which are Rev Patriots: John Coy Jr, William Coy and Christopher Coy. Have a YDNA match to this branch connecting to the New England Coys. This is a major project, too big for a week in DC, but there are sources there for me to mine for info. Briefly, this John Coy is claimed (by the KY and MO descendants) to be the one who m. Sarah Woodbury of Bristol RI. Based on what we know of the births of the offspring of the two John Coy families, they can't be the same John Coy. OR John Coy could have been a bigamist and went back and forth from MD to RI. AAAGH. There is a tale of him being in the RI rum business, and winning a boat out of a court settlement in RI, and using this boat to run back and forth; so it is plausible, but sources are not clear or solid. Here is the separate tree I created from what is known on this family: https://www.ancestry.com/family-tree/person/tree/164271745/person/412136852727/facts |
| Specific Questions 3 | Does looking at this tree give you any inspiration of where to go next? Are you able to look at DNA results and understand them? I'm pretty much a rookie. What is the significance of the 1745 MD land record cited below? |
| Briefly Cite Sources 3 | all the stuff on the ancestry tree I disproved that "John Caughy" is the same fellow (via my trip to NEHGS recently). I have read loads of undocumented materials from descendants, geni.com, and this new fellow I found (Bill Hunt) whose book and the Coy chapters include the rum-running story. (Not the bigamy- that is my own recent thought). Male COY DNA (I am the GAP admin for the Coy Project at FTDNA so have all their kits.). A giant spreadsheet of all the male descendants of the two immigrant Coys: Richard and Matthew to consider other John possibilities... A land deal in 1745 in Charles County MD with a John Coy: "At the request of John Coy, the following deed was recorded on Jul 24, 1745. Mar 7, 1744/45 from William Stafford of Prince Georges County, planter, to John Coy of CC, planter, for 1000 weight of tobacco, a tract of land in CC called Stafford Rest, bounded by Gallants Branch, a tract of land called Burdicts Rest, containing and laid out for 20 acres. Signed- William Stafford. Wit- John Hepburn, Thos Wilson, John Butridge. The deed was acknowledged by Wm. Stafford & Sarah, his wife." |
| Additional Comments 3 | Mostly I am trying to untangle this because I have corresponded with SO MANY of the MO and KY descendants who think their ancestor is the Rhode Island John Coy who married Sarah Woodbury, I'd love to solve that mystery. I also have a few titles to check at LOC for many of my lines. |

| Any Additional Comments | 1910 census- reported immigration 1853 and looks like naturalized is indicated Finding the Langenbeins who emigrated (Maggie's family) should help find more on Ruchtis. I have not found record of marriage of Joseph Ruchti and M.M. Langenbein. Many presume 1852, probably due to entry in 1900 census. |

| goal(s) for consultation | Confirmation of John Mathew's mom (Patience or Hannah or one in the same?) Where and what was John doing between his birth in 1710, marriage in 1736 and before Scituate circa 1747-1763? He made a lot of land deals and held several Town positions indicating to me he was educated and had money. How can I find out the source of his resources? If proven he and family moved to Belchertown, MA. why would he leave Scituate? Was there a draw to Western MA? Several Howlands were located in Swansea and Scituate during same time period– any relation? Why did John Mathew sue his wife Bernice's uncle Joseph Mason, Jr in Jun 1753 (Providence Courts)? Seems unusual to me that Bernice was left out of Grandpa Joseph Mason's will in 1748, when her mother and other grandchildren were included and Joseph had served as Bernice's guardian. Ideas of where I can learn more? Perhaps a family rift - John also sued Bernice's uncle Joseph (Jr) in Providence Court in 1753 and I'm trying to find court record. Help finding his will dated 1776 per FamilySearch A document states "He is called Captain in his appointment of fence viewed in 1750". What does this mean? Military records also rank him as Captain and LT. What did it mean to "take the oath against bribery" in 1747 in Scituate, RI. |

| Pertinent Information 2 | B 1676 Newton, MA? ?M 13 Aug 1702 Hannah Whittaker in Concord, MA. Indicates both John and Hannah were living in Concord in 1702 and married by Rev. Joseph Estabrook. Did he marry Patience? Children: John Hulett b 1710 Newton (s of John and Patience) Possibly also: Mary Hulit b 1702 in Newton Jonathan Hulit b 1707 |
| Specific Questions 2 | Goal: To confirm this John II is the father of Capt John (Mathew) Hulett I feel like I've hit a brickwall with John II and finding few facts. Where do I go from here? Was John married to Hannah Whitaker of Concord or Patience or both? Who was the mother of John III? Is it likely John II was a blacksmith like his father? Suggested resources? John II and his brother Michael are in Newton, MA in 1709/10 and each had their sons there. Did John II move to Killingly, Windham, CT, following his brother Michael? Sources point to John III moving from Newton, MA, to Swansea, MA, and then to Scituate, RI. From migration paths during that time, is it more likely John II moved to the Rehoboth/Swansea area rather than CT? How mobile were people during that time? Where/when did John II die? Will and probate? Burial? Land records: are the best sources the county or town? I'm interested in John II and Patience's story and understand focusing on facts is key, but I'd appreciate learning more about this period and direction for other historical references of that area. |

| Specific Questions 3 | Goal: To confirm facts and learn more about life story. Confirm FamilySearch record of John I's birth in Exning, Suffolk, England to Edward Howlet. There are several variations of the Hulett name. How common is the name? Is the name mostly prominent in England? France? There is a John "Holleth" in Scituate, MA in 1663/4. "John Hallet" in 1669. Could this be a family connection? How probable is "Howlet/Hulet related to others with a variation of this name? Based on article in The Register by Robert C. Anderson, I've assumed I've no direct connection to the Hulett/Howlets in Topsfield. Is this misguided on my part? John was a mariner and perhaps a blacksmith. Suggested sources to confirm? I am interested in learning more about life as a mariner in Boston at that time. John married Abigail Powell, daughter of Michael Powell who is well researched including by Robert Charles Anderson and Randy West at NEHGS - Is it likely John was also well researched? Michael Powell was a founding member of the 2nd Church. Is it likely Abigail and John were members? I've come across a document that states "John Howlett refused to live in Boston near the tyrant Andros, so abandoned his blacksmith shop and removed to Newton." By Ruth H. Barker, Historian for the Sylvanus Hulet Family Organization. Suggestions for me to confirm this story? Michael Howlet (brother of John II) settled and died in Killingly, CT. His descendants joined the Church of Latter Day Saints and his line is well researched. Where do you suggest I look for the most accurate genealogy? Given the timeframe, is there a more logical migration path from Boston/Newton to Rehoboth, Swansea and Rhode Island or from Boston/Newton to CT? |

| Additional Comments 3 | I'm trying to work my way up the tree from Capt. John Hulett. I realize I have little info on his presumed father John II and need to focus on him before proceeding to John I. However, I wonder if John I would provide clues to John II. If you suggest I focus on someone else than John I, I am ready to pivot and can provide additional info to you. All of your help is greatly appreciated! |

| What is your main goal in attending this program? | Further research on three family lines. Develop better organization and family cluster research skills. |
| Consultation 1: Name of individual to be discussed | John Gordon |
| Pertinent information about individual | John b. Glenholm, Peepleshire, Scotland; baptized 1 Nov 1753 Arrived on HMS George 16 Jun 1776 and was immediately taken Prisoner by “American Rebels”. Next record is John Gordon’s marriage in xxx to Anna Goodrich Herrick, (widow of William Herrick) in Sharon, CT. m. 17 Dec 1780, Sharon, Litchfield, CT. John is from Amenia, Dutchess, NY They had 4 children: Rebecca (b.15 May 1784), HUGH (b.18 Apr 1786), Henry (b. 8 Jan 1788) and James (b. 5 Jul 1790). Some records state Highlanders where marched inland, perhaps to Worcester. Worcester and other prison towns allowed townspeople to “hire” POWs. Pension records show two of William Herrick’s brothers (Jonathan and James) guarded prisoners (Tories or British?) in Poughkeepsie and Fishkill, New York. Could they have paroled him? There is also a mention of a linen factory being set up to build clothing for the military in Dutchess Co in 1776. Could John Gordon, a once a weaver in the linen growing area of Scotland, have been parolled to work here? Census records show Anna and John living in Onandaga after land purchase in 1812. John dies and is buried in Onandaga. Anna moves with her family to Erie, PA and dies and is buried there. |
| Specific question(s) or goal(s) for consultation | Would like to find further details about the period from John Gordon’s capture up until the marriage of Anna Goodrich to a man named John Gordon. I believe they are one and the same, but would like evidence beyond the family record (which is not sourced). Ideas I have are::* Is it possible to find Committee of Safety Records? What about Newspaper articles? I have started some “Cluster Research” efforts but it is tough to know where to focus these... Ideas? Additional DAR records? DAR turned up the Hugh Gordon family Bible. Perhaps somewhere the letter written by Lydia Brown Gordon is submitted? |
| Briefly cite sources already reviewed | NARA POW records mentioned in their finding aid; Ships logs from the American Revolution at NARA; searches for Committee of Safety records from Poughkeepsie in Albany, Dutchess Co Historical Society, and Fold3 records of the Continental Congress. Also land and census records in New York, and pension records for extended family |
| Any Additional Comments | How much “evidence” is considered enough to claim John Gordon as our ancestor? Some people discount him because of 1 year difference between tombstone and baptismal date. Personally, I believe that is explainable, but it bothers to not have any further source validation than a hand written scan of birth dates and an anecdotal ancestry report. |

| Consultation 1: Name of individual to be discussed | Martin O'Brien |
| Pertinent information about individual | Martin was born in Oak Creek, Milwaukee Co., Wisconsin on 26 Dec 1848. His mother, who I believe was Bridget O'Brien, because she's listed in the 1850 U.S. Census with the family and is buried with a Martin O'Brien in St. Matthews cemetery in Oak Creek, died in 1855. His father was Martin O'Brien and died in 1856. Both were from Ireland. Afterwards, he was sent to Mazomanie, Dane Co., Wisconsin with his half-brother, Thomas Crane, to live with J. and Rosa Cawley (who he often lists as his mother). According to "History of Spokane County", Martin left Mazomanie when he was 20 and went to Faribault, Minnesota. In 1876, he went to Dallas, Texas and then to Leadville. In 1880, he arrived in Spokane. According to the website of the https://www.newmanlake.com/history/moab.html Martin was the first settler in the Moab, Washington area. He married Bridget McAuliffe in 1897. |

| Consultation 3: Name of individual to be discussed | Christian Fischer and Louisa Deubel |
| Pertinent Information 3 | Christian Fischer was born abt 1805 in Wuerttemberg according to Census records. The first documents I have found were 2 land patents in Washtenaw, Michigan in 1837. He was married to Maria "Louisa" Deubel (date and location unknown). Their first child was Hannah was born in Nankin, Wayne Co., Michigan in 1836. He bought and sold land quite often over the years. Louisa died 28 Oct 1887. That same year, he gave his daughter Elizabeth Fischer Martin the land that he was living on in Nankin. I'm guessing he died within a couple of years of that, but can't find his death information. Maria Louise Deubel was born 29 December 1810 in Wuerttemberg. According to Personalia from the Amerikanischer Correspondent 1826-1828 ed. Don Yoder, her father, William Frederick Deubel, left America in Nov 1827 to go back to Germany to bring back his child (Louisa) and his property. They arrived in Philadelphia on 9 Dec 1828. I think Christian and Louisa met and married sometime between then and 1836 but not sure where. https://www.ancestry.com/imageviewer/collections/8769/images/PAM425_43-0352?pld=10453347 |
| Specific Questions 3 | I could only find a brief page of the manifest of the return trip. Would there be the whole manifest on the microfilm at NARA? I'd like to check to see if Christian made the trip over with them. Louisa's father had a son who was born in D.C. in 1824. Do they have birth records for D.C.? Through Census records and property records, I have quite a bit of info about Christian. But I don't know when or where he was born, got married, or died. Would appreciate any ideas for resources to look at? |

| Briefly Cite Sources 2 | FROM MY SEARCHING ON THE SUBJECT, THAT BEGINNING IN 1903, INSPECTORS USED FORM 818 OR "RECORD OF ALIENS HELD FOR SPECIAL INQUIRY," TO DOCUMENT BOTH THE PROCESS AND THE RESOLUTION OF CASES OF DETAINED IMMIGRANTS. ACCORDING TO NARA: The National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) does not house records of all BSI hearings ever held. In most instances, the federal agency in charge of immigration—the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), now known as the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS)—only preserved records of BSI appeals for eventual transfer to NARA. BSIs excluded and ordered the deportation of relatively few immigrants who had BSI hearings, and of those, even fewer appealed the decisions. Thus, NARA's records document only a small fraction of all immigrants who had a BSI hearing. First, some names may be found in the Subject Index to Immigration Case and Correspondence files, 1906-1956, a digitized version of an historical INS index available from the commercial website ancestry.com. The index is name searchable. Each entry in the digitized subject index references case-related correspondence and provides the file number required to request the file from NARA in Washington, DC. SEARCHING WITHIN THIS DATABASE I HAVE FOUND NOTHING FOR HUMBERTO AND HIS FRIEND RAFAEL. I ALSO SEARCHED NARA CATALOG AND FOUND NOTHING FOR HUMBERTO. Second, a microfilm version of the same subject index is available from the National Archives (NARA microfilm publication T-458). Because the index is arranged by subject searching for individual names on the microfilm is very difficult. Only a researcher who knows the approximate date of the action, as well as the cause for exclusion or deportation will have any chance of finding an individual immigrant's name in the subject index. NOTE: Whether using ancestry.com's digitized copy of the subject index or the microfilm version available from NARA, researchers should keep in mind the subject index references several file types and not all index entries refer to deportation or exclusion records. It is also important to know that the subject index is not a comprehensive index for deportation and exclusion files. Files may exist for individuals who do not appear in the index. I PLAN TO SEARCH THIS MICROFILM PUBLICATION T-458 WHILE AT NARA. Third, researchers can submit an Index Search Request to the USCIS Genealogy Program. The Genealogy Program maintains a name index to historical immigration records including the case and correspondence files at the National Archives. If the immigrant was born more than 100 years ago or you can provide proof of death an Index Search Request to the Genealogy Program should return the file citation for a deportation or exclusion file, if it exists. Researchers may then use the citation to request the file from NARA. I WILL SUBMIT AN INDEX SEARCH REQUEST TO USCIS. |

| Consultation 1: Name of individual to be discussed | Joseph Haskin |
| Pertinent information about individual | Born April 8, 1792 in Pittsdown, Rensselaer, New York Died May 28, 1863 in Plum Hollow, Leeds, Ontario, Canada He was my 4th great-grandfather Married to Lucy Parish - 1800-1884 - Leeds, Ontario |
| Specific question(s) or goal(s) for consultation | I want to specifically confirm that Joseph and Lucy Haskins were the parents of Sidney Haskins (my 3rd great-grandfather). On Sidney's official marriage registry, his parents are listed as Elizabeth and Ephraim Haskins; however, there are lots of reasons (i.e. naming of children in Joseph and Lucy's families and then in Sidney's family; and DNA matches to Joseph and Lucy's descendants, and a photo of Sidney's children as older adults in their 60's and 70's at the gravestone of Joseph and Lucy Haskins), that lead me to doubt the marriage registry despite it being a primary source. |

| Specific Questions 2 | I don't have very much information on her (she is listed in the marriage records of some of her children, but no census or birth information). I would like to find more solid information about her. Her daughter, Mariah Slack, wrote a family history and talks about her mother dying (Mariah was 10 at the time), and I would like to have more solid info. | Consultation 1: Name of individual to be discussed | William and Mary(Grant) Robinson |
| Pertinent information about individual | I have no vitals on William and Mary. I got their name off of their sons death certificate. I have only one child from their marriage Stephen Grant Robinson, my gg grandfather. From census records of Stephen , he says his father was born in Maryland and Mary was born in New York. Stephen says he was born in Harford County ,Maryland . But in Stephen's civil war pension papers, says he was born in Baltimore , Md. and another time in New York City. I don't think he knows where he was born. Stephen was married to Isabelle Jane Minich on March 21, 1858 in York County Pennsylvania. Family lore says that Mary(Grant) Robinson is related to President Grant. |

| Consultation 1: Name of individual to be discussed | Joseph King (~1800-aft 1859) |
| Pertinent information about individual | Joseph King Jr (Joseph Roy) was married to Catherine Maheu (or Mahue/Mayo in the States). No record found. They had 2 children, Jane and Frank/Francis King. — Jane (Geneviève) was baptized in August, 1828, at Ste-Marguerite-de-Blainfirdie (St. Jean County, Quebec) at age fifteen months, and was from Vergennes. Her father was an “engineer”. — Frank/Francis was baptized by a missionary priest from St. Joseph Catholic Church in Burlington, VT in Aug 1834, he was 21 months old and was baptized in Bolduc’s house in Vergennes. In 1841, Catherine King bought land situated in part in Vergennes, in part in Panton. Her husband is not dead, but the deed specified that after her death, the deed would go to her children, Francis and Jane. There were some deeds for Francis and his wife Catherine King as well as for Joseph King Jr and his wife Catherine Maheu in Panton. Catherine Maheu King died in 1859 and was buried in Panton. This family apparently lived in Panton from at least 1841 until 1859. After his wife’s death, he sold his land and I never found a trace of him. To make matters worse, I never found Joseph and Catherine in the 1850 Census even if they should be in Panton or Vergennes. I followed Francis/Frank King. He was in Panton in 1860, he lived afterward between Addison and Port Henry where he died in 1909. I may have a clue about Jane King. One Peter Alden (1819-1898) was married to one Jane King (1823-1884). They lived in Panton. That couple went to live for a short time to Pennsylvania in the same town where Catherine Maheu’s siblings settled. |
| Specific question(s) or goal(s) for consultation | 1) What would be an "engineer" in the 1820s, knowing that he was living in Vergennes. 2) Do you have any suggestions as where to look to try to find what happened to Joseph King after 1859. |

| Consultation 2: Name of | John Arnoux (~1770-1821) |

|---------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| individual to be discussed | |
| Pertinent Information 2 | I'm trying to decipher and understand a page in the Vergennes Town Records for the Year 1802: Vergennes Town Book A, Page 191 - Family Search, image 105 of 418 (original enclosed herewith). "The following Accts (accounts?) having been exhibited to us the subscribers as overseers of the Poor for the year past, and we having examined the same do allow: To Wm Smith as p. John Arnoux ____ (?) paid for the support of a Negro man / a pauper named Newport $4.75 To Gideon Spencer as p. John Arnoux ____ (?) paid for Support of said New Port 2.50 " |
| Specific Questions 2 | 1) I need some help deciphering some words/abbreviations. 2) What is John Arnoux's role in this? I understand that he supported a pauper named Newport and that his expenses were paid by William Smith in one case and Gideon Spencer in the other case. And ultimately, William Smith and Gideon Spencer were reimbursed for these expenses. Am I right? |

| Consultation 3: Name of individual to be discussed | John Arnoux (~1770-1821) |
| Pertinent Information 3 | I am not sure I understand the land record herewith (original & transcription enclosed). In 1795, John Arnoux bought the land (Lot No. 12 in the Third Division) from James Danley. In 1796, John sells 1/4 of an acre out of the southwest corner of Lot No 12, Third Division to John Etienne Chartier. In 1799, John Etienne sells back the 1/4 of an acre out of the southwest corner of Lot No 12, Third Division to John Arnoux. The next document concerning this piece of land is the document enclosed from the year 1799. From what I understand, John Arnoux bought the land at a sales auction for unpaid taxes. |
| Specific Questions 3 | As John Arnoux was the one who owned this land, why didn't he just settle the unpaid taxes? Or am I missing something? It doesn't make any sense to me. |
