Seceder Session Book

Non-Subscribing Presbyterians

- Trace to a dispute among members of the Synod of Ulster over subscription to the Westminster Confession of Faith
- Those who wouldn't subscribe to the statement of doctrine were referred to as "New Light" Presbyterians or "non-subscribers"
- Many disagreements and further schisms
- Finally formed the General Synod of the Non-Subscribing Presbyterian Church in 1910

Reformed Presbyterians

- Also known as Covenanters because they adhered to the Covenants of 1638 and 1643
- These covenants addressed liturgical issues and signers were to maintain the religion and oppose any changes
- Reformed Presbyterians believed such obligation passed from one generation to the next
- Officially formed Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of Ireland in 1811

Roman Catholics

- Very few of the Catholic registers date back to before the 1820s
- Catholic parishes seldom follow the boundaries of civil or Church of Ireland parishes
- May be arranged separately for each sacrament
- Funerals don't give ages, but they at least supplies names and the dates of the burial

Removals – Lisburn

Thomas Taylor, Secy.

Report is made that another visit was paid to John Manders by the friends appointed—fearing that he has not viewed his conduct in a proper manner—and, there not appearing that which would encourage further Labour, it is concluded to direct the same friends, to prepare a draught of a testimony of disownment, and bring it to next meeting.

The subscriptions for this Meeting, amount $\pounds 100-15-6\frac{1}{2}$, are reported to have been collected, and paid to the Treasurer—the Committee for the Poor is desired to examine the Lists, have them recorded, and report.

The minutes of the Quarterly meeting, respecting Overseers, referred to in our proceedings of last seventh month, has been again read. It is

Meeting Minutes – Dublin

Whereas George Davis, who had his Education amongst the People called Quakers, hath so far slighted the principle of Truth in his own mind, as to neglect the attendance of our religious Meetings, associate himself with unseemable Company, and drink to excess; and whilst in a state of Intoxication, he was seen endeavouring to gain Admission into a house of ill-repute; for which he hath been repeatedly visited by the Overseers, and different Appointments of the monthly Meeting, in Order to endeavor to bring him to a Sense of his situation; but this labor appears not to have had the desired effect; wherefore for the clearing of Truth from the reproach, brought on it by such Conduct, we feel it incumbent on us to testify against the same, and do hereby disown the said George Davis from being a member of our religious Society, until
