Part 3: Analysis, Module-7 – Principles of Analysis

Select the best answer(s) to each question. When finished, click the link at the end to view the answers.

1. Choose the best answer about genealogical sources:

- Authored works are the least reliable genealogical source.
- Digital images are not considered original sources.
- Original sources are from the time period of the event.

2. Check all that apply. The most reliable information is from:

- A participant in the event
- A report soon after the event
- Family members
- Prominent websites
- Authors of compiled genealogies
- Family trees found on the internet

3. Check all that apply. Each record may contain multiple pieces of information. Information becomes evidence:

- All the information is evidence.
- The information becomes evidence when it directly answers the family historian's question.
- The information only becomes evidence when combined with other pieces of information to answer a question.
