OVERVIEW

Situated in northern Europe along the shores of the Baltic Sea are the captivating countries of Lithuania, Latvia, and Estonia, all with a storied past. On this tour specially designed for the Wyner Family Jewish Heritage Center at American Ancestors, we will explore Jewish heritage and culture and learn about the rich history of the Baltic states, accompanied by scholar Rabbi Chaim Seidler-Feller and other experts.

Our journey begins in Vilnius, once known as the “Jerusalem of Lithuania” with more than 100 synagogues and some of Europe’s leading rabbinical and academic institutions. Prior to World War II, Lithuanian Jews were among the most influential members of society. We will explore Vilnius’s rich history on a walking tour of the Old Town with its charming collection of buildings and visit the Trakai Island Castle. Next, we travel to Riga, the capital of Latvia and a UNESCO World Heritage site. Here, we will learn about Riga’s prominence in medieval Europe and the role Latvian Jews played in the flourishing economic and intellectual life of the country before the Second World War. Highlights of our Riga stay include a special visit to the Jewish Museum for a summary of the region’s Jewish history and a view of the city’s mixture of medieval and elaborately ornamented Art Nouveau buildings.

Those wishing to extend their journey will spend three nights in Estonia’s capital, Tallinn, a UNESCO World Heritage site and one of Europe’s best-preserved medieval cities. Here, we will enjoy a walking tour of the Old Town with its mix of German, Scandinavian, and Russian architecture, as well as visits to the recently opened Beit Bela Synagogue and KUMU, one of the Baltic area’s most prestigious art museums.

Throughout the tour, we will learn from academic experts and local guides, stay in luxurious and centrally located accommodations, and enjoy delicious regional cuisine. Discover the allure of the Baltics through this immersion in landscape, architecture, culture, and memory.

ITINERARY

SUNDAY, MAY 12 | VILNIUS

Arrive in Vilnius, capital of the Grand Duchy of Lithuania and transfer independently to the Grand Hotel Kempinski in Cathedral Square. (Rooms available for check-in after 3:00 PM)

In the late afternoon we will gather for a guided walking tour of the Old Town, one of the largest surviving historic centers in Europe. Our evening begins with an orientation and presentation, “Vilna: The Cradle of Modern Jewish Civilization,” by Rabbi Seidler-Feller, followed by a welcome reception and dinner in our hotel.

MONDAY, MAY 13 | VILNIUS

This morning, we travel by coach to the old Jewish cemetery (the final resting place of Gaon of Vilna) and continue to the Choral Synagogue for a guided tour. The synagogue built in 1903 is the only one in Vilnius that is still in use after all others were destroyed during World War II and by the Soviet authorities after the war.

The tour continues after lunch with a walk through the medieval Jewish quarter and ghetto and a visit to the Vilna Gaon Jewish State Museum dedicated to the historical and cultural heritage of Lithuanian Jewry. Rare photographs and copies of diaries and handwritten notes relating to the Holocaust are on display. This evening, Rabbi Seidler-Feller will present “Hasidim and Their Lithuanian Opponents: The Legacy of R. Elijah, the Gaon of Vilna” followed by dinner on your own. A list of recommended nearby restaurants will be provided.

TUESDAY, MAY 14 | VILNIUS | KEIDAN | KAUNUS

Today begins early with our departure for Keidan (also known as Kedainiai), a major Jewish shtetl known for centuries as an important regional center, a seat of dukes and counts, and a multicultural community. Until the catastrophic events of the 20th century, Keidan’s Jews lived in relative harmony with their neighbors, including Lithuanians, Poles, Russians, Germans, Belarusians and even Scots. Keidan’s scholars, merchants, and artisans were known far and wide, leaving a legacy that continues to inspire the community’s far-flung descendants. Here, we will visit the recently redecorated Old Synagogue and museum and take a walking tour along the cobblestoned streets of the Old Town.

After lunch in an 18th-century building which belonged to a member of the immigrant Scottish community, we will drive to Kaunas (also known as Kovno) and visit Ohel Jakob Choral Synagogue founded in 1871. Before the Holocaust, this radically designed, neo-Baroque temple was one of more than 35 synagogues and Jewish prayer houses in Kaunas. Though few Jews remain here, the synagogue houses a stunning Torah ark and encapsulates the rich and illustrious history of Jewish Kovno. Now a museum, the building also contains collections of historical artifacts related to Soviet and Nazi atrocities.

Back in Vilnius this evening, we will dine at a local restaurant.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 15 | VILNIUS | TRAKAI

This morning we travel east to Trakai Historical National Park, stopping en route at Paneriai Forest to view the memorial site commemorating the killings of over 100,000 Jews during the Holocaust. Trakai Historical National Park encompasses a wooded lake area with castles and the historic town of Trakai, the ancient capital of the Grand Duchy of Lithuania developed in the 13th century.

In town, we will have a private tour of the Karaite Ethnographic Museum which traces the ancestry of the Karaites, an ancient sect and offshoot of Judaism whose descendants arrived in Trakai from the Crimea in the 14th century. There were once a few hundred Karaim families living in Trakai. Now, fewer than 250 Karaim people live in Lithuania, mostly in the area around Vilnius and Trakai.

After lunch with a view of the lake towards the castle, we will have a private guided tour of the Gothic Trakai Island Castle, considered a masterpiece of medieval defensive architecture and one of the few monuments in the former Soviet Union to have been fully restored during the Soviet period. It’s the only castle built on water in Eastern Europe and houses a comprehensive but concise collection of exhibits relating to the history of Lithuania. Finally, we will embark on a private boat to cruise Lake Galvė, one of the deepest lakes in Lithuania, to experience the castle from a different perspective.

This evening we’ll enjoy another presentation, “Who Were/Are the Karaites? Are They Jews? How Have They Influenced the Development of Judaism?” by Chaim. Dinner is on your own.

THURSDAY, MAY 16 | VILNIUS

Accompanied by our local expert, we’ll depart our hotel on foot for Old Town to see the Gothic quarter and the Gate of Dawn, built between 1503 and 1522 as a part of defensive fortifications for the city. We will then continue our exploration of the former Jewish Quarter.

Later, we'll take a tour of the Tolerance Center, a branch of the Vilna Gaon Jewish State Museum that teaches the history and culture of Lithuanian Jewry and acts as a performance space. Also known as the Samuel Bak Museum, it contains a collection of Judaica, modern art, and historical exhibits.

The remainder of the afternoon will be on your own to explore the city.

Our educational program continues this evening with a lecture, "How Latvian Activists Launched the Movement to Free Soviet Jews," and dinner on our own.

FRIDAY, MAY 17 | RIGA

This morning, we'll check out of The Grand Hotel Kempinski and travel the 185 miles north to Riga, the capital of Latvia and a UNESCO World Heritage site. After crossing the Latvian border, we'll stop at Rundāle Palace, considered the grandest stately home in the Baltics and a true gem of Baroque and Rococo architecture. It was built as a summer residence for Ernst Johann Biron, Duke of Courland, who was a favorite of the Russian empress Anna Ioannovna. Here, we will have a special private guided tour and lunch.

In the late afternoon, we will check in to the Grand Palace Hotel. After time to unpack and relax, we will meet for Shabbat dinner at our hotel.

SATURDAY, MAY 18 | RIGA

The morning is at leisure to relax, explore Riga Castle, St. Peter's Church and the city's medieval historic center and/or for attending Shabbat services at Peitav Shul. In the afternoon we will set off on a guided walking tour of historic Old Riga, designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site with its elaborately ornamented Art Nouveau buildings. We will visit the Riga Art Nouveau Museum, the only museum in the Baltic States dedicated to the Art Nouveau heritage, which was built in 1903 as a private home of the famous Latvian architect Konstantīns Pēkšēns. The façade of the monumental building boasts ornamental reliefs and stylized motifs of plants and animals common in Latvia. The impressive spiral staircase is considered one of the most magnificent masterpieces not only in Riga, but also in Europe.

The remainder of the day is on your own. A list of recommended nearby restaurants will be provided.

SUNDAY, MAY 19 | RIGA

This morning will begin with a private director-led tour of Riga's Jewish Community Center and Museum. The museum is dedicated to the history of Latvia's Jewish community from the first Jews in the territory in the 16th century to the tragic events of Holocaust. We will also visit Peitav Shul, Riga's synagogue, with our local guide, during the course of the morning

After lunch on our own in Old Town, we will explore the "Moscow District," the former ghetto area with the Great Synagogue memorial and the old Jewish Cemetery. Along the cobblestone streets in this area, wooden homes stand next to dilapidated buildings, old churches and Soviet housing estates.

We will end our day at the Žanis Lipke Museum, a modern, interactive museum that tells the little-known tale of Žanis Lipke and the small network of people who created an "underground railroad" to rescue Jews during the Nazi occupation of Latvia. Constructed next to the site where the Lipke family hid Jews saved from the ghetto, this memorial has been ingeniously designed by prominent Latvian architect Zaiga Gaile.

For those joining the trip's optional extension, we will depart Riga and travel through the arboreal countryside to Tallinn, Estonia. Along the way, we will stop for lunch in the southwestern seaside town of Pärnu at a restaurant renowned for its cuisine and its early Art Nouveau style.

Our coach will then continue to the charming 5-star centrally-located Hotel Telegraaf, our home for three nights.

TUESDAY, MAY 21 | TALLINN

This morning we travel by coach to the spectacular Kumu Art Museum whose mission is to preserve and interpret Estonian art from the 18th century to the present. Here, we'll have a private guided tour that encompasses the building's award-winning architecture and highlights of its permanent collection. In 2008, it received the prestigious European Museum of the Year Award. There will be time to explore the shop before lunch together in a local restaurant.

Next, our local guide will lead us on a walking tour of Old Town, including Town Hall Square, Toompea Castle, Dominican Monastery, and Alexander Nevsky Cathedral (a magnificent example of a Russian Revival cupola cathedral). Along the way, we'll stop for a guided tour of the Niguliste Museum, housed in St. Nicholas' Church built in the 13th century. It is one of the few museums in northern Europe located in a former church building, where ecclesiastical art can be enjoyed in its historical context. The stars of the museum's collection of medieval and early modern ecclesiastical art are the late medieval altarpieces from northern Germany and the Netherlands, and Bernt Notke's painting Danse Macabre from the late 15th century.

The remainder of the afternoon and evening is at leisure. A list of local restaurants will be provided.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 22 | TALLINN

This morning we'll visit Tallinn's architecturally fascinating and modern Beit Bela synagogue and the adjoining museum. We will have an introduction from one of the members of the Tallinn Jewish community and a private guided tour of its museum, housed in the Jewish Community Centre next door. Lunch and the rest of the afternoon are on your own for last-minute shopping or to explore the city.

Tonight we'll end the tour with a festive farewell dinner in our hotel.
