The Wyner Family Jewish Heritage Center Benefit Dinner
 Honoring Shoe Designer, Entrepreneur, and Philanthropist Stuart Weitzman
 In Conversation with Jonathan Sarna
 Tuesday, June 18, 2024
 Lenox Hotel, Boston, MA

The Wyner Family Jewish Heritage Center (JHC) at American Ancestors celebrates Jewish history and presents the Tzedakah Lifetime Achievement Award to Stuart Weitzman at a festive benefit event in Boston. A graduate of the Wharton School of Business at UPenn, Weitzman began his career in his father’s shoe business in Haverhill, Mass., and went on to build a global shoe brand that has dominated the red carpet and been worn by millions of women around the world, including such celebrities as Beyoncé, Kate Middleton, Meghan Markle, and Taylor Swift. He approaches his extensive charitable endeavors with equal dedication, supporting a wide range of hospitals and research centers, youth organizations, and cultural institutions, and mentoring students at several universities. During the evening, Weitzman will be in conversation with Jonathan Sarna, University Professor and the Joseph H. and Belle R. Braun Professor of American Jewish History at Brandeis University, about Weitzman’s start in the Massachusetts shoe industry; his career designing shoes for the stars; and his commitment to Jewish history.

Benefits for Benefactors

Our Benefit Events attract a local and national audience of JHC and American Ancestors Trustees, Councilors, members, and guests. All proceeds benefit the JHC’s mission to preserve New England Jewish history, explore Jewish heritage, and advance understanding of the American Jewish experience for audiences of all backgrounds.
