NEWS OF MERCER.

Harry White Wins Case
 Harry White, who has been practicing medicine here for several years past, but who has been in the position as a physician with the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. with office at Hintonburg. The doctor is to be congratulated in receiving the appointment as it is one of trust as well as one requiring professional ability.

W. W. MASON of West Meadows, who went to Providence, recently, to consult a physician with reference to a growth on his face, has written that the specialist pronounced it a cancer and says that an operation will be the only remedy and that a doubtful one. News item to say this news will be received with sorrow by his many friends.

Miss Clara Laird and Mr. George Dorwart were quietly married by Rev. Dr. Padonburg, Thursday. The wedding was a quiet one, only near relatives of the bride and groom were present. They will make their home this winter at the residence of Lyman Dorwart, South Mercer street. They are popular young people and have many well-wishers.

Anna Maria, wife of John Getz, died near Graegsville, November 19, at the advanced age of 84 years, 6 months, and 29 days. She was a faithful member of the Reformed church at Graeg, near Transfer, and was buried in the cemetery near the church. Funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. Dr. Laidt, assisted by Rev. Dr. Oster of the Lutheran church.

A quiet home wedding was that of Miss Jennie W. Stinson and Mr. Fred L. Homer, of Cleveland, last Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. B. Wakefield at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Sarah Stinson, South Main street. Only a few guests were present at the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Homer left the same afternoon for their new home in Cleveland, followed by the best of good wishes of many friends.

Col. Albert W. Johnson, who died November 6, at the home of his son, Congressman Tom L. Johnson, of Cleveland, Ohio, left to his three sons $4 each and to his widow the remainder of his estate, valued at $24,077. Long ago it was understood among the sons that at their father's money should be left to their mother and urged him to cut down of with a dollar each. It might be added that the sons are not in actual want especially Tom Jr., several times a millionaire.

Charles R. Wray has resigned his position in the First National bank, having purchased the business of the Manhattan Life Insurance Company's agency at Hintonburg, who controls all of that company's business in the city of Hintonburg and Western Pennsylvania. While Mr. Wray is greatly entering his condition, the capture of himself and wife will be a direct loss to the town in both a business and a social connection. They are people generally can not afford to lose and their removal is much regretted. Mr. and Mrs. Wray leave for the Iron City in a few weeks.

When you come to town call at Hooper & Burnett's insurance agency and learn what it will do for you. Get a paid up policy on the O. J. Adams or North America. 814 27

HISTORY OF MERCER COUNTY.

1878. They reared eight children: Samuel, Abraham K., John, Maria, Linna, Marvin, Madison and Ann, all residents of the county except Samuel, who lives in Michigan. Abraham K. was reared in his native township, and married June 10, 1836, Mrs. Sarah Smith, nee Lawton, a native of Yorkshire, England, who has borne him five children: Silas, Catharine (wife of Oscar Brockway), Peter, Daniel and Anna S., all living. Politically Mr. Harnis is a staunch Democrat, and one of the oldest native residents of the township.

JACOB HASENPLUG, farmer, post-office Greenville, was born in Centre County, Penn., October 29, 1830. His grandfather, Henry Hasenplug, emigrated from Germany to America during the Revolution, and after the war married a Miss Siebold, of Union County, Penn. His father, Jacob Hasenplug, was born in Union County July 16, 1790, there grew up and married Annie Lechty, a native of the same county. They afterward removed to Centre County, where Jacob operated a tannery and brewery. In the fall of 1834 they removed to West Salem Township, Mercer County, and reared six children: George E., deceased; Elizabeth, wife of Jonathan Showers; Jacob; Maria, widow of William Dillon; John H. and Daniel. They settled in the forests of West Salem, in a hewed log house which Mr. Hasenplug erected after coming. The mother died in 1871, and her venerable husband, at the ripe old age of ninety-three years, resided on the old homestead, peacefully awaiting the call to join her in that home beyond the grave, until his death August 7, 1888. Both died in the faith of the Evangelical Association, of which church they were members many years. Politically he was a Republican. Our subject has resided in West Salem since the fall of 1834. He learned the shoemaker's trade, which he followed at Mayville for twenty years, but since the spring of 1882 he has been engaged in farming. In the fall of 1862 he was drafted, and enlisted in Company D, One Hundred and Sixty-ninth Regiment, Pennsylvania Militia, and served nine months. Mr. Hasenplug was married in April, 1855, to Mary Ann, daughter of Jeffrey and Ann (Merford) Bentley, of West Salem Township. She was a native of Mercer County, and reared nine children: Elizabeth, wife of Charles Busell; Emma, wife of Squire Jewell; Elmer E., Arminia, Ida, Charles, Ella, Sadie and Lorinda, all of whom are living. Mrs. Hasenplug died in the Baptist faith May 7, 1875. Our subject is a Republican, and one of the well known citizens of the township.

THE HOMMER FAMILY.—Jacob Hommer, a native of Germany, and a Revolutionary soldier, was one of the early settlers of West Salem Township. He grew up in Maryland, and was twice married. His first wife was Mary Siler, who bore him three sons and four daughters: John, Joseph, Jacob, Polly, Lena, Susan and Elizabeth. The mother died in Maryland, and he married Mrs. Hannah (Booth) Schaffer, and with two sons, John and Jacob, and his four daughters, by his first marriage, immigrated to Mercer County in 1809 (Joseph remaining in Maryland), where he purchased and settled on a tract of land partly lying within the present limits of Greenville. Two daughters, Hannah and Rachel, were born of his second marriage. His cabin stood on the west side, where Samuel West now lives. The parents both spent the balance of their lives on this farm, upon which they were interred. John, the eldest son, married Catharine Harsh, in Maryland, and after coming to Mercer located at the Big Bend, in Delaware Township, where his father purchased him 100 acres. He died there, and his sons still live on the old homestead.

Joseph, the second son, was born in Maryland May 13, 1791, there learned the shoemaker's trade, and came to West Salem Township about two years after the rest of the family. He married Magdalena Everhart, who was born and the industry of lumbering as well as farming. Some four hundred sheep are pastured annually, and as many as 17,000 pounds of delicious maple sugar were made for the past few years."

The present (1925) town officers in Florida are as follows: Selectmen, G. N. Thatcher, A. F. W. Newman and W. O. Ford; treasurer, G. W. Searle; town clerk, George Martin; assessors, G. N. Thatcher, J. Newman; tax-collector, G. N. Thatcher; auditor, H. L. Raycroft; overseer of the poor, A. F. W. Newman; superintendent of school, Charles C. Richardson.

The reports of the town treasurer for 1924 gives figures as follows: Receipts for year ending December 31, 1924, $64,146; disbursements for the same period, $52,945.

Hancock Town—This is the longest and narrowest sub-division of Berkshire county and is an agricultural section of the same. Its population in 1920 was 464. It has one-third of the State's boundary on New York, and in its early days was slower in settlement on account of the uncertainty of the state line which until adjusted was likely to cause much litigation as to land titles. Until 1787 the town was three-fourths of a mile wider than at present and in that portion the first settlements were effected. In the summer of 1767 Asa Douglass, Esq., made the first actual settlement. The first town meeting was held August 21, 1776 at the house of Asa Douglass, Esq. He was chosen to represent the town in the General Court of Massachusetts. "Voted that he should procure the incorporation of this town. That he should have a certificate of good character and standing," and 13thly voted, "That the title of 'Honorable' pertaining to this gentleman be annexed to their names who have wrote to the General Court of Massachusetts, a recommendation of Esq. Douglass." The names thus embalmed in public record as "Honorable" were: Captain Daniel Goodrich, Benjamin Baker, Eleazer Deming, Benijah McCaul, and Ensign Martin Townsend.

The Revolutionary War came on and the records show that in May, 1778, it was voted that the selectmen proceed to procure clothing for the soldiers according to the act of the General Court. Also that "$300 be assessed and collected for hiring soldiers; that $200 be used for the upper and $100 for the lower company." The last named was at New Lebanon, then a part of Hancock town, the upper where now stands the village of Hancock. It was then voted that "there shall be no horse racing in this town." Squire Douglass had charge of the powder magazine which was an
