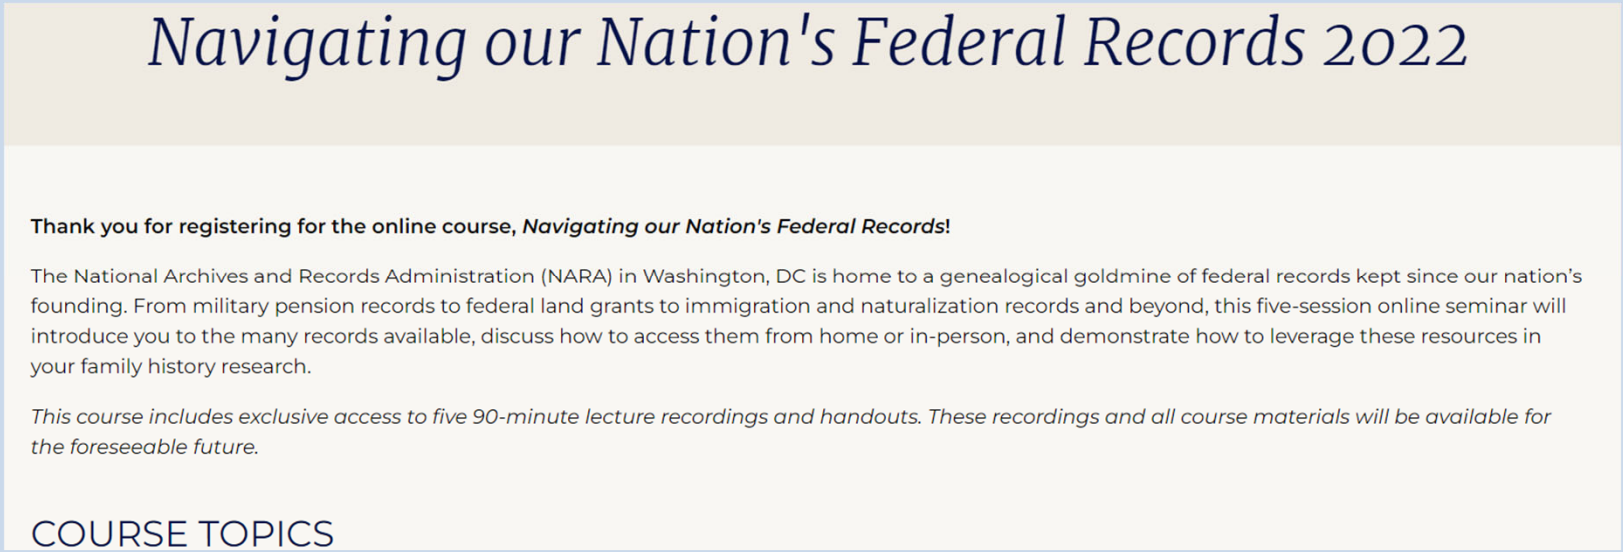
Navigating Our Nation's Federal Records Online Course

- Included with your tour benefits- link to course page found under "Pre-Tour To-Dos"



Navigating our Nation's Federal Records 2022

Thank you for registering for the online course, Navigating our Nation's Federal Records!

The National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) in Washington, DC is home to a genealogical goldmine of federal records kept since our nation's founding. From military pension records to federal land grants to immigration and naturalization records and beyond, this five-session online seminar will introduce you to the many records available, discuss how to access them from home or in-person, and demonstrate how to leverage these resources in your family history research.

This course includes exclusive access to five 90-minute lecture recordings and handouts. These recordings and all course materials will be available for the foreseeable future.
