At a meeting of the Commission^{ers} of the United Colonys, by adjournment in Boston. Novemb. 2. 1675. 39

How as much as the Narraganset Indians are deeply affected in the present bloody outrages of the Barbarous Natives, that are in open hostility with the English, this appearing by their harboring the actors thereof, poisoning & murdering their women, children & wounded men, & detaining them in their custody, not withstanding the covenant made by their sachons to deliver them to the English, and as is credibly reported they have killed and taken away many cattle from the English their neighbours and did for sundry days seize & keep under a strong guard Mr Smiths house & family, and at the news of the victory that the Indians had over the English at or near Hadley did in a very reproachfull & blasphemous manner triumph and rejoice thereat. The Commission^{ers} do agree & determine that besides the n^o. of Soldiers formerly agreed upon to be raised

The Petition of Joshua Ray of Salem

Humblly sheweth that yo^r Petitioner's brother in law namely Capt Lathrop and yo^r Petitioner's son in law namely Samu^{el} Stephens were both slain in the wars by the Indians: and Both their families - as well as his owne have dependants on yo^r Petitioner for Indigo, and Supplies: and he hath but onely one son to yo^rid him assistant in the managment of the affairs of the said three families - and now his said son is prest to goe out in this Expedition against the Indians: But his said son was not prest at Salem: but at Newbery for yo^r Petitioner had sent his said son together with one Thomas Haines to look after some business of his daughter Stephens at Newbery: and they were both prest by the officers at Newbery now the said Haines hath under his care and managment the concerns of a Brother of his that now lies wounded at Road Island: and also of a neighbour and friend that lyeth in Garrison at Hadley and if he be forced to goe into the Woods his friends concerns must unavoidably suffer: as well as his owne: who being a millster hath a great quantity of mill at this time under hand which will be all spoyle and Lost if he be forced to leave it: And moreover the officers of Newbery have provided no Arms for the said persons prest by them as afores^d: but the major Gen^l as well as Capt Gorish did advise them to make their applications to yo^r Honors not doubting but yo^r Honors would grant them release Yo^r Petitioner therefore humblly requests the favour of yo^r Honors to consider the premises and to grant yo^r Petitioner's son namely Danell Ray and the said Thomas Haines a dismissal from this present Expedition and so shall yo^r Petitioner and the said persons be over Engaged to yo^r Honors

The Council on yo^r petition

To his excellency S^r William Phips Knight Governour of the Massachusetts Bay &c in New-England; and Honourable, Counsell, and to the worshipfull R^o Representatives, sitting now in general Court.

The Humble petition of Edward Willy in behalfe of himselfe, soldiers, and Seamen, concerned with him; in the voyage to Cannada.

Humble sheweth unto yo^r excellency and Honor, that in the said voyage yo^r petitioner in the River of Cannada coming home; did with his company and souldiers aboard the botch stratomitii; meet with a French barque, bound to Quibock; which was attacked and brought a prize, unto the Honourable Sir William Phips, who then was in the river, who ordered Roger Stanor his boat swaine, to command her, in her voyage, with whom my Ensigne and four souldiers being aboard; came to the Isle of Shoales, where she was run ashore, though the lardo (excepting salt) most part, with the rigging saved, but imbrilled by the Command^r; and no pail to the value of Twenty Shillings came to the hands of yo^r petitioner, or those concerned in taking her; either of what was botwixt rocks, or in hold; The Ensigne and souldiers losing their cloaths, and armes, and ever since receiving no satisfaction for them by armes, or what was brought from the Isle of Shoales to Boston; which was Two hundred and Thirty odd barrells of ff Lowe, and powder, with some of the ships armes; and other things, to what value yo^r petitioner knowe not, was committed to the dispose and care of Major Elisha Hutchinson, for the use of the Country and all others concerned. and yet no satisfaction given yo^r petitioner, for one Majesty of what was in her, brought hither, which yo^r petitioner humbly suppofeth belongs to them.

yo^r petitioner therefore humbly prayeth, that you will order; that the proportion of what the said goods was sold for, may be delivred unto yo^r petitioner, or some other person, for the use of him, and others concerned with him, and other guns (or fire-locks) may be ordered, the men who left them; in the service of the Country on board the said prize.

and yo^r Petitioner, shall as in duty bound, for yo^r Excellency; and the Honourable. General Court ever pray.

Researching Colonial New England Ancestors

Thank you for registering for the online course, Researching Colonial New England Ancestors!

As a group, 17th-century New Englanders are arguably one of the most studied groups on the planet, and thus descendants are blessed with a multitude of resources. In many cases, town vital records, church, colony, court, probate, land, military, and tax records not only have survived, but have been abstracted and published. And yet, early New England is not without its challenges and idiosyncrasies. This five-week course will discuss the settlement of and migrations within New England, how to locate and utilize original and published records, and strategies for breaking down brick walls. This course will cover the colonial period (1620–1776) in the area of what is today Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, and Vermont.

This course includes five 90-minute classes, Q&A with instructors, and exclusive access to handouts and recordings of each presentation.
