

American Ancestors®

A NATIONAL CENTER FOR FAMILY HISTORY, HERITAGE & CULTURE

Join Us in Boston for a FREE Three-Day Teacher Workshop!

Genealogy in the Classroom: Bringing History to Life with Family History

July 31–August 2, 2025 | 10 a.m.–4 p.m.

Application Deadline: July 15—Space is limited, apply today!

Greater Boston Area Teachers: Grades 4-8

Social Studies Teachers, English Language Arts Teachers & School Librarians

Join us to receive training and resources needed to implement our Family History Curriculum

Go beyond family trees and help students develop critical research and thinking skills as they explore their roots and make personal connections to history.

Location: American Ancestors, 97 Newbury Street, Boston, Massachusetts

Questions? Contact Dustin Axe, Youth Genealogy Curriculum Coordinator at dustin.axe@americanancestors.org.

Benefits

- $200 stipend for travel and materials needed to implement genealogy lessons with students
- Inquiry-based lessons and inclusive teaching strategies from our Family History Curriculum
- First-hand knowledge from professional genealogists and strategies to replicate authentic research methodologies in the classroom
- One-on-one virtual follow-up training to brainstorm a personalized plan to create lessons and projects for students
- Monthly group meetings to exchange ideas and gain insight from fellow educators
- Student field trip to American Ancestors to support your classroom curriculum
- Member access to AmericanAncestors.org

Receive a $200 Stipend!

Scan with your phone to learn more!

