At a meeting of the Commission^{ers} of the United Colonys, by adjournment in Boston. Novemb. 2. 1675. 39

How as much as the Narraganset Indians are deeply affected in the present bloody outrages of the Barbarous Natives, that are in open hostility with the English, this appearing by their harbouring the actors thereof, poisoning & murthering their women, children & wounded men, & detaining them in their custody, not withstanding the covenant made by their sachons to deliver them to the English, and^{as} is credibly reported they have killed and taken away many cattell from the English their neighbours and did for sundry dayes seize & keep under a strong guard Mr Smiths house & family, and at the news of the victory that the Indians had over the English at or near Hadley did in a very reproachfull & blasphemous manner triumph and rejoice thereat. The Commission^{ers} do agree & determine that besides the n^o. of Soldiers formerly agreed upon to be raised of the war. I received my discharge from the army at the close of the war on the twenty eighth day of Oct. in the year of our Lord ~~eighteen~~ ^{seventeen} hundred & eighty three, signed by Major General ~~Thomas~~ Knox. Which discharge is lost.

 I further on oath declare, that from my reduced circumstances, I need the assistance of my Country for support and am a citizen of the United States.

National Society Daughters of the American Revolution

The DAR Genealogical Research System (GRS) is a free resource provided by the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) to aid general genealogical research and to assist with the DAR membership process. The GRS is a collection of databases that provide access to the many materials amassed by the DAR since its founding in 1890.

DAR members across the country are passionate ambassadors for genealogical preservation and research, and the National Society is committed to being a premier provider of genealogical resources.

The online databases are the culmination of 10 years of work by members volunteering to scan and index the vast genealogical resources of the DAR Library. The creation of these research tools was funded in large part by the President General's Projects of Linda Tinker Watkins (2001-2004) and Presley Merritt Wagoner (2004-2007). This system of databases will continue to expand as new information is added.

The databases contain DAR proprietary information which should under no circumstances be redistributed to others, assembled, reproduced, published, or posted in any form whatsoever with the exception of the following: (i) DAR membership and supplemental applications; (ii) citation in genealogical scholarship; and (iii) citing a DAR

10 Million Names

DAR is proud to be one of the founding collaborating institutions supporting the 10 Million Names project.

Revolutionary War Pension Files Transcription Mission

The stories of over 80,000 men and women who lived through the American Revolution are waiting to be told. Will you help us tell them?

Help transcribe military pension files from the Revolutionary War!

In celebration of the 250th anniversary of American independence, the National Archives and the National Park Service are collaborating on a special project to transcribe Case Files of Pension and Bounty-Land Warrant Applications Based on Revolutionary War Service, ca. 1800 - ca. 1912. These Revolutionary War Pension Files consist of applications and other records pertaining to claims for pensions and bounty land warrants.

These records may contain valuable details about Revolutionary War veterans and their families, such as rank, unit, period of service, age, residence, date and place of marriage, and date and place of death of spouse. Also within these records, you may find copies of marriage or other family records, information pertaining to military activities or details about soldier's lives, along with letters, diaries, or family trees. Read more about these records and what you may find from the National Park Service's article Tips and a Guide for the Curious.
