County Histories

1878. They reared eight children: Samuel, Abraham K., John, Maria, Lillian, Marvin, Madison and Anna, all residents of the county except Samuel, who lives in Michigan. Abraham K. was reared in his native township, and married Jan. 10, 1895, Mrs. Sarah Smith, nee Lewton, a native of Yorkshire, England, who has borne him five children: Silas, Catherine (wife of George Brockway), Fester, Daniel and Anna S., all living. Politically Mr. Hearn is a staunch Democrat, and one of the oldest native residents of the town ship.

John Henry Brown, farmer, post office Ursenville, was born in Centre County Penn., October 29, 1839. His grandfather, Henry Brown, emigrated from England to Centre County in 1792. His father, John Brown, was born in New-Sethel, of Union County, Penn. His father, John Brown, was born in Union County July 10, 1795, then grew up and married Elizabeth, daughter of John Brown, of Union County, Penn. John Brown, Sr. was a farmer when John acquired a tavern and hardware. In the fall of 1848, the latter married George E. Janssen, Elizabeth, wife of Jonathan Shoenk, Susan, Maria, Elizabeth, and John. John and Elizabeth had four children: John, George, William, David, John, and David. They settled in the town of Ursenville, Centre County, Penn., in 1850. He was a member of the Methodist Church. The mother died in 1871, and her venerable husband, at the ripe old age of 86, died in 1881. He was buried in the Ursenville cemetery. He was joined in his last hours beyond the grave, until his death August 9, 1888, to his wife in the faith of the Evangelical Association, of which church they were members. He was buried in the Ursenville cemetery. He had been sick and bedridden in Union since the fall of 1884. He learned the shoemaker's trade in 1852 and was well known in farming. In the fall of 1882 he was disabled, and confined in Company D, One Hundred and Sixty-ninth Regiment, Pennsylvania Infantry, during the war. He was discharged in 1864. He was married in 1864 to Mary Ann, daughter of Jeffrey and Ann (Marble) Burman, of Pennsylvania. He had three children: John, Mary Ann, and Elizabeth. He was married in 1864 to Mary Ann, daughter of Jeffrey and Ann (Marble) Burman, of Pennsylvania. He had three children: John, Mary Ann, and Elizabeth, wife of Charles Lind, Emma, wife of Squire Johnson, Elmer E. Francis, his Charles, Elmer, Susan and Lenora, all of whom were living in 1910. He died in Ursenville, Centre County, Penn., July 10, 1910.

The Hovens Family.—Jacob Hovens, a native of Germany, and a Baptist minister, came to Maryland in 1791, and settled in Towson. He grew up in Maryland, and was twice married. His first wife was Mary St. John, daughter of John St. John, a native of England. Towson was born in London, Susan and Elizabeth. The mother died in Maryland, and he married Mrs. Hannah (Booth) Schaffer, and with two sons, John and Jacob, and two daughters, Mary and Elizabeth, he came to Towson in 1800. John and Jacob and Joseph remained in Maryland, where he purchased and settled on a tract of land, and partly lying within the present limits of Greenview. His two daughters, Mary and Elizabeth, were married to John and Jacob, and they remained on the west side, where Samuel West now lives. The parents both spent the remainder of their lives in Towson. Jacob died in 1830, and his second son, married Catherine Harsh, in Maryland, and after coming to Mercers Island at the Big Bend, in Delaware Township, where his father purchased a tract of land, and where he lived until his death in 1850. His son, Joseph, the second son, was born in Maryland May 15, 1791, there learned the trade of a cooper, and came to West Virginia about two years after the rest of the family, and was in the Maryland Militia.

THE HOMMER FAMILY.—Jacob Hommer, a native of Germany, and a Revolutionary soldier, was one of the early settlers of West Salem Township. He grew up in Maryland, and was twice married. His first wife was Mary Siler, who bore him three sons and four daughters: John, Joseph, Jacob, Polly, Lena, Susan and Elizabeth. The mother died in Maryland, and he married Mrs. Hannah (Booth) Schaffer, and with two sons, John and Jacob, and his four daughters, by his first marriage, immigrated to Mercer County in 1808 (Joseph remaining in Maryland), where he purchased and settled on a tract of land partly lying within the present limits of Greenville. Two daughters, Hannah and Rachel, were born of his second marriage. His cabin stood on the west side, where Samuel West now lives. The parents both spent the balance of their lives on this farm, upon which they were interred. John, the eldest son, married Catharine Harsh, in Maryland, and after coming to Mercer located at the Big Bend, in Delaware Township, where his father purchased him 100 acres. He died there, and his sons still live on the old homestead.

Grantee Index – Berkshire Middle District

Review
1. Remember – your female ancestor had a life and a name prior to her marriage
2. When she married, her family didn't "go away" – they probably lived in the area
3. Search all existing records that might reveal the wife's maiden name
