Options for Census Substitutes

- Assessment and tax records or return of inhabitants compiled by local village or township
- Surviving nineteenth century militia rolls, which may list men in a community within a certain age group
- Group petitions (which exist for Upper and Lower Canada, as well as New Brunswick and Nova Scotia): These petitions may be found in the land petitions series under the name of a region signed by members of the community requesting government assistance to build a road, provide land for a church. Many petitions maybe requesting land grants for personal settlement
- School Records. Listing the names of teachers and occasionally students

Summary

- Don't rely on just one record set
- Don't reinvent the wheel - look at published sources in combination with originals
- Keep up with scholarly publications
- More and more records are being indexed and digitized every day

Tides of History: Tracing Family History in Atlantic Canada

Thank you for registering for the online seminar, Tides of History: Tracing Family History in Atlantic Canada!

Surrounded by beautiful rocky shores on the Eastern Canadian coast, Atlantic Canada is home to a unique patchwork of cultures and histories including those of indigenous, French, British, Scottish, and Gaelic populations. The region comprises the provinces of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Newfoundland and Labrador, and Prince Edward Island. This five-week online seminar will provide a detailed overview of essential record sets, repositories, and research strategies for exploring your Atlantic Canadian roots. We will also discuss the historical context of the changes and events that transformed the region and influenced the lives of your ancestors.

This course includes five 90-minute classes and exclusive access to handouts and recordings of each presentation. These recordings and all course materials will be available for the foreseeable future.
