New!
Elements of Genealogical Analysis
by Robert Charles Anderson
p. 3

New!
Guide to Genealogical Writing
by Penelope L. Stratton and Henry B. Hoff
p. 5

Qualities that make great publications—and a great Society.

Since 1847, we have brought scholarly research and writing to the public through the publication of outstanding works in the field of family history. Our expertise has helped researchers of all levels expand their knowledge, skills, and understanding of their family and its place in history.

By bringing you original works by our expert staff and by offering some of the best selections from independent authors, NEHGS remains at the forefront of genealogical research.

We understand that every family has a fascinating story to share. The materials offered in this catalog from The Bookstore at NEHGS have been thoughtfully created and carefully chosen to help you uncover yours.

The founding genealogical society in America is delighted to bring award-winning scholarship and expertise to you through these valuable selections and our newest catalog.

Welcome to The Bookstore at NEHGS!

D. Brenton Simons, President and CEO

The Bookstore at NEHGS
AmericanAncestors.org
On our cover

An English settler is depicted during the year 1626 at Plimoth Plantation, Plymouth, Massachusetts.
Portable Genealogists: Quick-reference guides written by the experts at NEHGS

This series of best-selling quick-reference sheets covers a variety of topics concerning genealogical research, records, writing, and history. Written by the experts at NEHGS, these four-page laminated guides fit easily in your research files and can travel with you.

- Ideal for researchers of all levels
- Affordable, accessible, and portable
- Written by genealogical experts

RESEARCH TOPICS

Organizing Your Research
by Rhonda R. McClure, page 4

Problem Solving in Irish Research
by Marie Daly, page 23

Seventeenth-Century New England Research
by David C. Dearborn, page 13

Using DNA in Genealogy
by Christopher C. Child, page 6

RECORD TOPICS

Immigration to the U.S.
by Rhonda R. McClure, page 4

U.S. Naturalization
by Rhonda R. McClure, page 4

New York State Census
by Christopher C. Child, page 19

Massachusetts State Census
by David Allen Lambert, page 14

WRITING TOPICS

Building a Genealogical Sketch
by Penelope L. Stratton, page 5

Genealogical Numbering
by Penelope L. Stratton, page 5

Editorial Stylesheet
by Penelope L. Stratton, page 5

CONNECTING TOPICS

Applying to Lineage Societies
by Lindsay Fulton, page 4

Only $6.95 each! Free USPS shipping

1-888-296-3447 | AmericanAncestors.org/Store
Elements of Genealogical Analysis

How to Maximize Your Research Using the Great Migration Study Project Method

Robert Charles Anderson, FASG 6 x 9 pbk, 188 pp., illus.; $24.95, member $22.46

Analyze records and make sound genealogical conclusions using the same method applied by Robert Charles Anderson in the Great Migration Study Project! This handbook presents a step-by-step process for solving genealogical problems—a methodology thirty years in the making. Developed by Anderson and perfected through his work on the Great Migration Study Project, this systematic approach considers each source, each record, and each possible linkage before making a genealogical conclusion. Clearly defined tools and logically ordered steps throughout the book help make this method both accessible and effective. 2014

Features include:

- Step-by-step instructions
- Easy-to-follow diagrams
- Clear explanation of terms
- Examples of actual research problems
- Case studies

“Following [Anderson’s] steps will insure that you have the best possible results, and that the individuals in your family tree actually are related to you.”

—Michael J. Leclerc, blog.mocavo.com

“Excellent! With a strong emphasis on analytical!”

—Goodreads.com

About the Author

Robert Charles Anderson is the director of the Great Migration Project (see pp. 8–10). He was educated as a biochemist and served in the United States Army in electronics intelligence. In 1972 he discovered his early New England ancestry and thereafter devoted his time and energies to genealogical research. He was elected a Fellow of the American Society of Genealogists in 1978. Anderson was coeditor of The American Genealogist from 1993 to 2012, and he has been an editorial consultant to the Register since 1989.
Portable Genealogist
Organizing Your Research
Rhonda R. McClure, 8½ x 11, laminated, 4 pp.; $6.95, member $6.26

No matter how monumental the task of organizing your research may seem, a systematic method saves valuable time and creates more accurate work. This Portable Genealogist offers practical advice on how to organize your research and files, keep track of families, and create goals to guide future research. Even if you are a seasoned family historian, it’s not too late to incorporate these practices into your work! 2013

Portable Genealogist
Immigration to the U.S.
Rhonda R. McClure, 8½ x 11, laminated, 4 pp.; $6.95, member $6.26

Since the 1600s, people have immigrated to America to escape persecution, claim a better life, or seek adventure. No matter the reason or time period, finding your immigrant ancestor can be a difficult task. This Portable Genealogist discusses the major waves of immigration between 1607 and 1924 and what records exist, where to find them, and how to learn more about your ancestor’s entry into America. 2013

Portable Genealogist
U.S. Naturalization
Rhonda R. McClure, 8½ x 11, laminated, 4 pp.; $6.95, member $6.26

New arrivals to America have been expected to show their allegiance since the seventeenth century. Over time, that expectation developed into the naturalization process of the present day. Naturalization records are key sources of information, telling the origins of the immigrant, age or birth date, and approximate arrival to the U.S. This Portable Genealogist will help you understand the history of naturalization, what records are available, and how to access those records. 2013

Portable Genealogist
Applying to Lineage Societies
Lindsay Fulton, 8½ x 11, laminated, 4 pp.; $6.95, member $6.26

This Portable Genealogist provides background on popular hereditary societies and guides you through the application process. Learn how to locate vital records and other sources for proving your ancestry, and consult the helpful lists of dos and don’ts for preparing your application. 2014

1-888-296-3447 | AmericanAncestors.org/Store
Guide to Genealogical Writing
How to Write and Publish Your Family History
Penelope L. Stratton and Henry B. Hoff, CG, FASG
7 x 10 pbk, 200 pp., illus. $19.95, member $17.96

Whether you are new to genealogy or have been researching for years, this improved edition of our bestselling “writing guide” will help you present your findings in writing. Using examples from NEHGS’s award-winning publications, our experts show you how to write your family history clearly and accurately—from building a genealogical sketch to adding images to indexing. An appendix on genealogical style covers alternate spellings of names, when and how to use lineage lines, how to include adopted children and stepchildren, aspects of double dating, and other issues faced by genealogical writers. This update of Genealogical Writing in the 21st Century is a must-have for anyone interested in sharing research! 2014

Portable Genealogist
Building a Genealogical Sketch
Penelope L. Stratton, 8½ x 11, laminated, 4 pp.; $6.95, member $6.26

If you’re ready to turn your family history research into a publication, this Portable Genealogist will help you assemble the basic elements of a genealogical “sketch” and go over the elements of the descendancy (Register style) and ancestor table (abentafel) formats. 2013

Portable Genealogist
Genealogical Numbering
Penelope L. Stratton, 8½ x 11, laminated, 4 pp.; $6.95, member $6.26

Genealogical writing depends on a variety of numbering systems to help organize material and make your research findings accessible to the reader. This Portable Genealogist will help you consistently implement these basic numbering systems in your writing. 2013

Portable Genealogist
Editorial Stylesheet
Penelope L. Stratton, 8½ x 11, laminated, 4 pp.; $6.95, member $6.26

When presenting your genealogical information, it’s important to be consistent in how you present your research, refer to certain places and people, and implement your overall style. This Portable Genealogist will help guide your writing and aid in decisions relating to capitalization, spelling, abbreviations, punctuation, and the like. Key elements for Register and abentafel style are summarized, and a list of common abbreviations is provided. 2014

1-888-296-3447 | AmericanAncestors.org/Store
Family Trees
A History of Genealogy in America
François Weil, Harvard Univ. Press; 6 x 9 hcvr, 384 pp., illus.; $27.95

The quest for one’s roots has been an enduring American preoccupation. Over the centuries, generations have sketched coats of arms, embroidered family trees, founded local genealogical societies, and carefully filled in the blanks in their bibles, all in pursuit of self-knowledge through kinship. According to author François Weil, this long and varied history of Americans’ search for identity illuminates the story of America itself. Weil conducted much of his research for Family Trees as part of a visiting scholar award from NEHGS. 2013

“Clear, fully annotated, subtly analyzed, timely, and nuanced, this book offers both general and academic readers a new view of genealogical research in America in a ‘why they did it’ rather than a ‘how to do it’ presentation.”
—Library Journal

DNA USA: A Genetic Portrait of America
Bryan Sykes, Liveright; 6 x 9 hcvr, 384 pp., illus.; $27.95

Renowned geneticist Bryan Sykes presents a groundbreaking examination of America through its DNA. From old WASP New England to the tribal lands of the Navajo, Sykes takes us on a historical genetic tour, interviewing genealogists, geneticists, anthropologists, and everyday Americans. Several members of the NEHGS staff and community are featured prominently in the book. 2012

“Sykes writes lucidly, creating his own unique mixture in a book that might be described as ‘Travels With Charley’ meets ‘The Double Helix.’”
—The New York Times

Portable Genealogist
Using DNA in Genealogy
Christopher C. Child
8½ x 11, laminated, 4 pp.; $6.95, member $6.26

Advances in DNA research have had huge implications for the field of genealogy. By testing your DNA and comparing the results to a database of other individuals, you can better understand your origins, confirm lines of descent, test hypotheses, and connect with distant relatives. This Portable Genealogist will guide you through the process of selecting a DNA testing service, understanding the results, and making connections to the genealogical research you’ve already completed. Two case studies demonstrate DNA’s impact on genealogical research. 2014
More than 12,000 reprints available!

Classic Reprints

Genealogies, Local Histories, and More

8½ x 11 pbk, 250 pp.; $12.95

Expand your research with more than 12,000 library-quality reprints of rare, hard-to-find, or out-of-print genealogies, local histories, and biographies from our classic reprints catalog. Covering a wide variety of topics and geographic areas, this important reference should be on every genealogist’s bookshelf! 2011

Guide to Published Genealogies in the Library of the New England Historic Genealogical Society

Introduction by Gary Boyd Roberts

8½ x 11 pbk, 2,000 pp.; $49.95, member $44.96

NEHGS has been collecting published family histories for almost 170 years. Since its founding in 1845, the Society has added tens of thousands of genealogies to its shelves. Here for the first time is a book of all published genealogies the Society acquired prior to 2011. 2012

Manuscripts at the New England Historic Genealogical Society: R. Stanton Avery Special Collections

First Comprehensive Edition

Edited by Timothy G. X. Salls and Judith Lucey

8½ x 11 pbk, 1,200 pp.; $39.95, member $35.96

Navigate more than 12 million resources housed in the R. Stanton Avery Special Collections. This revised edition includes thousands of new items, an extensive index, and updated catalog numbers. 2011

“This guide opens a door to a large underutilized collection and is worth examining by those seeking new avenues of research.”

—FORUM Magazine

Guide to Diaries in the R. Stanton Avery Special Collections

6 x 9 pbk, 118 pp.; $9.95, member $8.96

See also

African American Resources

p. 22
The Great Migration Begins
Immigrants to New England, 1620–1633
(first series)
Robert Charles Anderson, FASG
6 x 9, 2,386 pp. in 3 vols.
hcvr: $125, member $99
pbk: $79.95, member $71.96

This classic three-volume set contains information on more than 900 families who settled in New England between 1620 and 1633. Each individual or family entry includes port or country of origin; arrival date in New England, and on what ship; the earliest known record of the individual or family; first and subsequent residences; marriages, births, and deaths; and more. 1996, 2012

“The outstanding contribution made by Anderson in The Great Migration Begins is the painstaking analysis of the evidence found for each individual. Carefully weighing the data accumulated in the last century, he has uncovered inconsistencies and provided new insights, as well as confirming previous accounts.”
—Marsha Hoffman Rising, CG, CGL, FASG

The Great Migration
Immigrants to New England, 1634–1635
(second series)
Robert Charles Anderson, FASG
6 x 9 hcvr, page counts and prices below

The years 1634 and 1635 were watershed years for New England immigration, representing as much as 20% of the total for the period 1620–1640. This now-complete seven-volume set provides profiles of more than 1,400 early New England immigrants. Each volume includes a discussion on the methods and sources used, more than 200 genealogical sketches, and comprehensive every-name and place indexes. 1999–2011

Volume I, A–B, xcvi + 635 pp., 1999
reg. $59.95, member price $53.96

Volume II, C–F, ciii + 739 pp., 2001
reg. $59.95, member price $53.96

Volume III, G–H, cix + 599 pp., 2003
reg. $59.95, member price $53.96

Volume IV, I–L, cx + 475 pp., 2005
reg. $59.95, member price $53.96

Volume V, M–P, cxiv + 665 pp., 2007
reg. $59.95, member price $53.96

Volume VI, R–S, cxvii + 774 pp., 2009
reg. $64.95, member price $58.46

Volume VII, T–Y, cxx + 670 pp., 2011
reg. $64.95, member price $58.46

Order the complete seven-volume set for $375—a savings of over $50!
The Pilgrim Migration
Immigrants to Plymouth Colony, 1620–1633
Robert Charles Anderson, FASG
6 x 9 pbk, 708 pp.; $29.95, member $26.96

_The Pilgrim Migration_ collects in one place the story of every family or individual known to have resided in Plymouth Colony from the arrival of the _Mayflower_ in 1620 until 1633. Each of the more than 200 sketches provides Old World histories, New World experiences, and genealogical accounts, including marriages and children. 2004

“For beginning researchers in early New England History, _The Pilgrim Migration_ is a marvelous introductory text.”
—National Genealogical Society Quarterly

The Winthrop Fleet
Massachusetts Bay Company Immigrants to New England, 1629–1630
Robert Charles Anderson, FASG
6 x 9 hcvr, 912 pp.; $64.95 member $58.46

In 1630 John Winthrop led hundreds of Puritans and a fleet of more than a dozen ships from England to the New World. This volume features more than 200 genealogical and biographical sketches of those immigrants and describes the migration to New England in 1629 and 1630, as organized and directed by the Massachusetts Bay Company. This volume also includes a fifty-page essay that discusses immigration during the Great Migration period, from 1620 to 1640. 2012

“The breadth and depth of Bob Anderson’s scholarship is stunning. In his capable hands facts become history.”
—Alvy Ray Smith, PhD, FASG, trustee emeritus of NEHGS, cofounder of Pixar

The Great Migration Directory
Immigrants to New England, 1620–1640
A Concise Compendium
Robert Charles Anderson, FASG
6 x 9 hcvr, 600 pp.; $64.95 member $58.46

An important new reference work, listing the name of all known to have come to New England during the Great Migration. Each entry will give the name of the head of household, English origin (if known), date of migration, principal residences in New England, and the best available bibliographic citation for each.
Four issues per year!

Great Migration Newsletter
Robert Charles Anderson, FASG
Print: $20 per year / $36 for two years; mailed Online: $10 per year / $18 for two years;
includes access to past issues

The quarterly Newsletter has been a cornerstone publication within the Great Migration Study Project for the past twenty years. It complements the published series and addresses the broad issues that are key to understanding the lives and times of New England’s first immigrants.

Subscribe today!
Visit www.GreatMigration.org or call 1-888-296-3447

The Great Migration Newsletter,
Volumes 1–20
Robert Charles Anderson, FASG
8½ x 11 pbk, 752 pp.; $27.95, member $25.16

The first twenty volumes of the Newsletter, spanning the years 1990 through 2011 and comprising eighty issues, are collected in this compendium. A comprehensive index provides an easy way to find subjects, place names, surnames, and even first names. 2012

For customers who own previously published compendia, a separate compilation of volumes 16–20 is also available.
8½ x 11 pbk, 208 pp.; $11.95; member $10.76

About the Great Migration Study Project

Between 1620 and 1640 about 20,000 men, women and children crossed the Atlantic to settle New England. The New England Historic Genealogical Society’s Great Migration
Study Project, under the scholarly direction of Robert Charles Anderson, FASG, aims to provide a concise, reliable summary of research on these early immigrants. The result of this ongoing effort has been a range of authoritative volumes and a quarterly newsletter covering the earliest years of settlement, more than 2,000 in-depth genealogical and biographical entries on New England’s earliest settlers, and the discovery of many previously unidentified immigrants.

“This massive ongoing effort has already rightly been heralded as the most important work in New England prosopography of this generation.”
—The American Genealogist
Genealogist’s Handbook for New England Research
5th Edition
Edited by Michael J. Leclerc
7 x 10 pbk, 432 pp., illus.; $24.95, member $22.46

This handbook is an indispensable resource for anyone doing research in Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, and Vermont.

More than just a how-to book, it is a directory of repositories, libraries, and genealogical societies throughout New England. This edition includes introductory essays to each state, nearly 80 state and county maps, a listing of each town’s parent and daughter towns, and a user-friendly two-color design. 2012

“This fine research tool is perhaps the most thorough listing and discussion of New England resources available—in print or on the Internet.”

—The Connecticut Nutmegger

Right: Page samples from the book depicting a map of Tolland County, Connecticut, one of nearly eighty maps in the 5th edition, and an easy-to-read town table.

New Englanders in the 1600s
A Guide to Genealogical Research Published Between 1980 and 2010
Expanded Edition
Martin E. Hollick
6 x 9 pbk, 272 pp.; $21.95, member $19.76

Find more genealogical writing about early New England ancestors than ever before. This expanded edition includes a full five more years’ worth of publications than the original edition. It covers select works from 2011, as well as additional resources, including MASSOG 1980–2010; the three final volumes of The Great Migration, 1634–1635; the final volume of John Howland of the Mayflower; and eight other works.

Entries for more than 3,600 families are alphabetized by surname; each entry contains enough information for you to locate the research that has been done on that particular person, and also indicates which publications mention other family members, ties to royalty, full-family genealogies, and/or DNA studies. 2012

Search the Early New England Families (1641–1700) database at AmericanAncestors.org for genealogical and biographical sketches seventeenth-century new england

3-volume set
New England Marriages Prior to 1700
Clarence Almon Torrey
8½ x 11, 2,400 pp. in 3 vols.
Pbk: $84.95, member $76.46
Hcvr: $124.95, member $112.46

“Torrey’s New England Marriages” is an essential reference for any genealogist with New England ancestors. Owned by NEHGS, Clarence Almon Torrey’s twelve-volume manuscript enumerates 99% of all pre-1700 marriages of New Englanders, including those who married in Europe prior to migrating. This set includes Torrey’s complete text, his sources, and a comprehensive index. 2011

The Original Lists of Persons of Quality 1600–1700
John Camden Hotten
Foreword by Robert Charles Anderson, FASG
6 x 9 pbk, 616 pp.; $27.95, member $25.16

Published more than 125 years ago, this important resource compiles listings of seventeenth-century English immigrants to New England, the Chesapeake, and the Caribbean. 2012

The Founders of New England
Originally Collected for and Published in The New England Historical and Genealogical Register
Samuel G. Drake
Foreword by Henry B. Hoff, CG, FASG
6 x 9 pbk, 160 pp.; $14.95, member $13.46

First published in installments in the Register in 1860, this volume, much like The Original Lists of Persons of Quality above, compiles passenger lists and other documents from the British Archives relevant to early migration to New England. Includes comprehensive indexes by passenger, person, place, and ship. 2012

The Planters of the Commonwealth
Charles Edward Banks
Foreword by Ryan J. Woods
6 x 9 pbk, 230 pp.; $24.95, member $22.46

This important classic work, first published in 1930, lists the names of immigrants to New England during the Great Migration, 1620–1640: more than 3,500 names of passengers on 96 ships. Going year by year, for each person, Banks lists full name, the name of the ship, place of origin, and residence in America. A key source for NEHGS’s Great Migration Study Project, the book also includes comprehensive indexes. 2014
Portable Genealogist
Seventeenth-Century New England Research
David C. Dearborn
8½ x 11, 4 pp.; $6.95, member $6.26

Prior to 1700, the European population of New England was still sufficiently small to be manageable from a genealogical standpoint. In many cases, town vital records, church, colony, court, probate, land, military, and tax records not only have survived, but have been abstracted and published. This Portable Genealogist will direct you to the most relevant and useful resources for tracing your seventeenth-century New England ancestors. 2014

Soldiers in King Philip’s War
George M. Bodge
Foreword by David Allen Lambert
6 x 9 pbk, 538 pp.; $29.95, member $26.96

Thanks to genealogist and historian George Madison Bodge, historians and genealogists have a better understanding of King Philip’s War (1675–1676). Based on the detailed analysis and transcriptions of countless pages of 17th-century records, this book lists Massachusetts soldiers and officers, includes sketches of principal officers, and lists land granted to veterans and their heirs. This reprint of the 1906 (third) edition also includes a history of previous Indian conflicts in New England. 2014

New England Captives Carried to Canada
Between 1677 and 1760 During the French and Indian Wars
Emma Lewis Coleman
Foreword by Donald R. Friary
6 x 9 pbk, 900 pp.; $29.95, member $26.96

Originally published in two volumes in 1925, New England Captives Carried to Canada represents decades of research conducted by Coleman and C. Alice Baker. This work names all the captives the two women discovered, provides biographical data, and paints a detailed picture of the Indian attacks on New England communities over the 80-year period. For nearly a century, this has been the go-to resource and most definitive work ever published on the subject. 2012

Dictionary of American-Indian Place and Proper Names in New England
R. A. Douglas-Lithgow
Foreword by David Allen Lambert
6 x 9 pbk, 456 pp.; $24.95, member $22.46

This dictionary is a key resource for scholars of New England Native American language, history, and culture, as well as genealogists. Experts at NEHGS have long relied on this book, first published in 1909, to help identify specific locations within New England and to interpret early deeds. 2012
History and Antiquities of Every Town in Massachusetts
John Warner Barber
Foreword by Alice Kane
6 x 9 pbk, 642 pp.; $29.95, member $26.96

This work, organized by county, gives historical background on all the Massachusetts towns that existed at the time of publication in 1839. John Warner Barber supplies facts and details of each town’s early settlement, including original Native American place names, and he presents statistics on local industries and agriculture, descriptions of landmark architecture and cultural organizations, and brief biographical sketches of historic residents. Barber’s numerous engravings attractively supplement the descriptions. 2014

See also more Massachusetts history titles on pp. 29–30

Pioneers of Massachusetts 1620–1650
Charles Henry Pope
Foreword by Scott C. Steward
6 x 9 pbk, 574 pp.; $29.95, member $26.96

Pope’s Pioneers of Massachusetts presents biographical information for nearly 6,000 pioneers who settled Massachusetts between 1620 and 1650. This classic reprint includes Pope’s full, annotated text (published 1900) and his sixteen-page supplement of additions and corrections (published 1902). This book also contains a list of abbreviations, sources, former town names, aggregate data for occupations and social position, and an all-name index. 2013

Portable Genealogist
Massachusetts State Census
David Allen Lambert
8½ x 11, laminated, 4 pp.; $6.95, member $6.26

Massachusetts researchers are fortunate to have so many early resources for genealogical and historical research. One source that is often overlooked, however, is the 1855 and 1865 Massachusetts state census. The state census contains valuable information beyond what is available in the federal census and provides important insight into Civil War-era Massachusetts. This Portable Genealogist will assist you in understanding, locating, and using this key record. 2013
An Early History of Boston
Aspinwall Notarial Records, 1644–1651
William Aspinwall
Foreword by Alicia Crane Williams
6 x 9 pbk, 478 pp.; $26.95, member $24.26
As Recorder of the Suffolk County Court in Boston from November 1644 until October 1651, William Aspinwall kept careful records of every document he notarized—including letters of attorney, marriage contracts, and property and estate transactions. This compilation of those records provides invaluable insight to historians and genealogists alike. It is no wonder that it has served as a key source for the Great Migration Study Project and other genealogical investigations into early New England. 2014

A Guide to Massachusetts Public Records
Parishes, Towns, and Counties
Carroll D. Wright
Foreword by David C. Dearborn, FASG
6 x 9 pbk, 538 pp.; $29.95, member $26.96
In 1884, Carroll D. Wright was appointed to prepare a report showing the condition of the public records of the parishes, towns, and counties of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. This remarkable book, originally published with the title Report on the Custody and Condition of the Public Records of Parishes, Towns, and Counties in 1889, brings together under one cover a town-by-town, church-by-church, and county-by-county listing of all the records existing for each jurisdiction. Each section is preceded by detailed explanatory notes, and numerous footnotes cite special circumstances related to particular records, such as missing volumes or records kept elsewhere. When genealogists and family researchers need to visit a city or town hall, knowing what existed in the clerk’s custody in 1889 will aid in the search for records. 2014

Western Massachusetts Families in 1790
Edited by Helen Schatvet Ullmann, CG, FASG
6 x 9 pbk, 326 pp.; $29.95, member $26.96
In 1790 Western Massachusetts was a crossroads for New England families heading west to New York or north to Vermont. The transient nature of families living in this area presents certain genealogical challenges. Contributed by NEHGS members, the fifty compiled sketches contained in this volume provide a major addition to the published research on this region. 2012

Search the Western Massachusetts Families in 1790 database at AmericanAncestors.org, which contains these sketches and more.
A Guide to Massachusetts Cemeteries
2nd Edition
David Allen Lambert
6 x 9 pbk, 362 pp.; $17.95, member $16.16
A valuable tool for anyone with Massachusetts ancestors, this guide includes a town-by-town listing of all known burial grounds in the state with the year of cemetery consecration (or oldest known gravestone or burial); year of town incorporation; location and contact information of the cemetery; key sources that mention the cemetery; and a comprehensive index. 2009

Indian Deeds
Land Transactions in Plymouth Colony, 1620–1691
Jeremy Dupertuis Bangs
6 x 9 pbk, 654 pp.; $29.95, member $26.96
This important genealogical work presents more than 400 transcriptions of early deeds of interest to Mayflower, Plymouth Colony, and Native American researchers. It includes a re-evaluation of land ownership and the relations between early-17th-century European settlers and their Indian neighbors. 2008

From Deference to Defiance
Charlestown, Massachusetts, 1629–1692
Roger Thompson
6 x 9, 650 pp., illus.
pbk: $27.95, member $25.16;
hcvr: $44.95, member $40.46
Discover 17th-century Charlestown and the lives and work of the first three generations of its townspeople. Using a variety of records, Thompson presents a colorful history of the town’s settlement and governance, its relationship with the land and sea, local crime and violence, the role of women, and ultimately its involvement in the Glorious Revolution. 2011

Cambridge Cameos
Stories of Life in Seventeenth-Century New England
Roger Thompson
6 x 9 pbk, 374 pp. $19.95, member $17.96

Bond’s Genealogies and History of Watertown, Massachusetts
Henry Bond, M.D.
6 x 9 hcvr, 1,094 pp.
$49.95, member $44.96
Genealogical Notes
First Settlers of Connecticut and Massachusetts
Nathaniel Goodwin
Foreword by D. Brenton Simons
6 x 9 pbk, 382 pp.; $24.95, member $22.46

Originally published in 1856, this essential resource presents compiled genealogical notes for more than forty families, through the fourth generation, and sometimes into the sixth. An ideal starting point for any beginner, the detailed notes will have researchers of all levels returning to this book again and again. 2011

See also more Massachusetts resources, pp. 15–16

Stamford Town Records
Volume 1, 1641-1723
Transcribed and annotated by Paul R. Finch
7 x 10 hcvr, 250 pp.; $34.95, member $31.46

Researchers of Stamford have long depended on flawed transcriptions and abstracts of early town records. This extensively annotated version of the 1882 transcription uses original records, primary sources, and expert research to fill gaps, correct errors, and offer helpful explanations. The result is a more complete view of Stamford’s past. 2011

“Finch’s meticulous transcription and annotation of the earliest Stamford Town Records will be invaluable to all researchers of early Connecticut history and will lead to improved insights into the history of this town and its first settlers.”

—Robert Charles Anderson, FASG, Great Migration Study Project

Colony of Connecticut Minutes of the Court of Assistants, 1669–1711
Transcribed by Helen Schatvet Ullmann, CG, FASG
6 x 9 pbk, 708 pp. $24.95, member $22.46

An invaluable source for those with early Connecticut ancestry, this transcription of the original records at the Connecticut State Archives provides a nearly contemporary record of disputes over debt, land, and estates, as well as cases involving witchcraft, divorce, murder, and counterfeiting.

Hartford County, Connecticut, County Court Minutes
Volumes 3 and 4, 1663–1687, 1697
Transcribed by Helen Schatvet Ullmann, CG, FASG
6 x 9 pbk, 528 pp. $19, member $17.10
Pioneers of Maine and New Hampshire
1623–1660
Charles Henry Pope
Foreword by David Watson Kruger
6 x 9 pbk, 264 pp. $24.95, member $22.46

Originally published in 1908, Pioneers of Maine and New Hampshire is a solidly researched precursor to the Genealogical Dictionary of Maine and New Hampshire (below). Author Charles Henry Pope relied on colonial, town, church, court, and other contemporary records to create a list of original immigrants to the area and compile biographical information for each. Organized alphabetically by surname, the book includes an index of names not treated with their own entry. 2013

“(Pope’s) admonitions to readers in the front material . . . remain as appropriate now as they did a century ago. The bibliography continues to provide a current roadmap, making this still a great starting place for research of early Maine and New Hampshire families back to original sources.”

—from David Watson Kruger’s foreword

Genealogical Dictionary of Maine and New Hampshire
Sybil Noyes, Charles Thornton Libby, Walter Goodwin Davis
Foreword by David C. Dearborn, FASG
6 x 9 pbk, 808 pp.; $27.95, member $25.16

This book contains extensive biographical and genealogical information about every family who settled in Maine and New Hampshire prior to 1699. Births, marriages, and deaths are listed through the third and sometimes fourth generation. Sketches include data on places of origin, residences, wills and deeds, court cases, and careers. Originally published in five parts between the years 1928 and 1939, this indispensable resource will save you time and provide you with a greater understanding of the area. 2011

“There is no doubt that the Dictionary is a triumph of genealogical scholarship. For many of the subjects of the book’s sketches, it remains today the only source in which their names appear in print. With this new printing, the Genealogical Dictionary of Maine and New Hampshire is once again accessible to a new generation of genealogists.”

—from David C. Dearborn’s foreword
History of Ancient Families of New Amsterdam and New York
Edwin R. Purple
Foreword by Richard H. Benson
6 x 9 pbk, 154 pp.; $17.95, member $16.16

Between 1875 and 1879, Edwin Purple contributed several articles to The New York Genealogical and Biographical Record on the first three or four generations of some of the ancient families of New York. Those articles, collected in this volume, feature the surnames Van Schaick, Siecken, Tymens, Brevoort, Varleth, Gouverneur, and those of other ancient and allied families. This volume also includes Purple’s instructive list of Dutch aliases and variant surname spellings. 2013

“His articles have stood the test of time, and some are still cited as the only compiled accounts of certain families.”
— from Richard H. Benson’s foreword

Portable Genealogist
New York State Census
Christopher C. Child
8½ x 11, laminated, 4 pp.; $6.95, member $6.26

New York is a crossroads for many of our ancestors. Some families may have been in New York State for less than a generation on their way further west, while other families became permanent settlers. New York’s sources for genealogical inquiry, however, are often lacking—statewide registration of vital records did not start until 1881! One bright spot in New York research is the New York state census. While the U.S. federal census may be the first place genealogists look to gather information about a family, state census records are often overlooked. The New York State census in particular offers remarkably valuable genealogical information beyond what’s contained in the federal census. This Portable Genealogist will assist you in understanding, locating, and using these important records. 2013

Find more essential New York resources online at AmericanAncestors.org!

Databases include:
- Abstracts of Wills, Administrations and Guardianships in NY State, 1787–1835
- Abstracts of New York County Wills, 1662–1801
- Albany County Deeds, 1630–1894
- Long Island Cemetery Inscriptions, 1652–1910
- New Netherland Connections
- The New York Genealogical and Biographical Record

1-888-296-3447 | AmericanAncestors.org/Store
New York State Probate Records
A Genealogist’s Guide to Testate and Intestate Records
Gordon L. Remington, FUGA, FASG
7 x 10 pbk, 224 pp., illus.; $24.95, member $22.46
This updated edition provides genealogists with the latest tools for locating New York State probate records from the past 350 years. A user-friendly design, inclusion of online sources, appendixes, and maps help researchers easily navigate this important group of records. 2011
“This is an important new edition which serves as a comprehensive guide to 350 years of probate records in New York state.”
—Rebecca A. Rector, The New York Genealogical and Biographical Record

New York Essays
Resources for the Genealogist in New York State Outside New York City
Marian S. Henry
6 x 9 pbk, 334 pp.; $17.95, member $16.16
This book collects 29 essays about New York written by Marian S. Henry for the NEHGS website. Topics include how to find primary sources in New York, and summaries of land purchases and settlements. The practical information will help you find your upstate ancestors, and the historical information will help you understand the world in which they lived. 2007

Settlers of the Beekman Patent, Dutchess County, New York
Frank J. Doherty; 6 x 9 hcvr, 900–1,250 pages per volume; $85 each
This series profiles more than 1,300 families who settled in the Beekman Patent, a land grant given to Colonel Henry Beekman in 1697 by the English Crown and the second largest patent in present-day Dutchess County, New York. 1990–2013
Vol. I: Historical Records. 1990
Vol. II: Abbot to Burch. 1993
Vol. III: Burtis to Dakin. 1995
Vol. IV: Darbyshire to Everitt. 1997
Vol. V: Fackert to Haas. 1999
Vol. VI: Hadden to Hunt. 2002
Vol. VIII: Lee to Millington. 2005
Vol. X: Paine to Rogers. 2010
Vol. XI: Rood to Sly. 2013
New! Vol. I-XI on CD for Windows or Mac $180
New! Vol. XI only on CD for Windows or Mac $34.95

1-888-296-3447 | AmericanAncestors.org/Store
The Expansion of New England
The Spread of New England Settlement and Institutions to the Mississippi River, 1620–1865
Lois Kimball Mathews
Foreword by Ralph J. Crandall
6 x 9 pbk, 318 pp., illus.; $17.95, member $16.16

Originally published in 1909, this history of westward expansion provides an important context and framework for anyone researching their early New England and pioneer ancestors. Topics include the socio-economic and religious impetuses for migrating first to New England and then westward, war’s impact on the ever-shifting frontier, the settlers’ relationship with Native Americans, the history of the formation of new states, and more.

Nearly thirty detailed maps help illustrate settlement patterns east of the Mississippi River in the 17th and 18th centuries and the population migration shift to Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin, and the Old Northwest Territory during the 19th century. 2011

4-volume set
Opening the Ozarks, 1835–1839
First Families of Southwest Missouri
Marsha Hoffman Rising, CG, FASG
6 x 9 hc, 2,962 pp.; $189, member $150

For more than seventeen years, Marsha Hoffman Rising researched the origins of the first thousand pioneers who bought land from the Springfield Land Office between June 1835 and March 1839, with the goal of finding their geographic origins. Using a variety of sources and approaches, and developing some new techniques of her own, she was able to pinpoint the origins of more than 85% of these pioneers.

This four-volume set includes settlers from Tennessee, North Carolina, Virginia, South Carolina, Missouri, Ohio, Maryland, and elsewhere. It also contains a lengthy introduction that details Rising’s methodology and innovative research techniques. 2010

“Marsha Hoffman Rising, CG, FASG, will be remembered for many contributions to genealogy, but Opening the Ozarks will be her foremost legacy to the world of genealogy.”
—Sharon DeBartolo Carmack, CG
African American Resources at the New England Historic Genealogical Society
A Selected Bibliography
6 x 9 pbk, 72 pp., illus.; $8.95, member $8.06

From social history to family history, the NEHGS collections contain a vast array of valuable resources for those researching their African American ancestors. This book highlights some of those resources and includes an essay by NEHGS member, genealogist, and lecturer Kenyatta D. Berry on how to begin your research. 2010

Black Families in Hampden County, Massachusetts, 1650–1865, 2nd Edition
Joseph Carvalho III
6 x 9 hcvr, 400 pp.; $29.95, member $26.96

This book chronicles the lives of African Americans living in what is now Hampden County in western Massachusetts from 1650 to 1865. This compilation of genealogical, biographical, and historical information not only brings these individuals to life, but also provides the student of regional black history with a comprehensive view of the community at a pivotal time in history. 2011

Twenty Families of Color in Massachusetts
Franklin A. Dorman
Foreword by James O. Horton
6 x 9 pbk, 646 pp.; $29.95, member $26.96

Using a variety of primary and secondary sources, Dorman constructed a vivid account of African American community life over 250 years. Through these pages move soldiers of the Revolution, black abolitionists and farmers, physicians and porters, ministers and barbers, social justice advocates and suffragists, as well as artists, musicians, and athletes. 2010

NEHGS Featured

Finding Your Roots with Henry Louis Gates, Jr.

NEHGS headquarters in Boston is the anchor location for Finding Your Roots—the highly rated PBS series hosted by NEHGS Trustee Henry Louis Gates, Jr. Several NEHGS experts assisted with the research presented during the course of the show.
Scotch Irish Pioneers
In Ulster and America
Charles Knowles Bolton
Foreword by Marie E. Daly
6 x 9 pbk, 426 pp., illus. $24.95, member $22.46

Originally published in 1910, Scotch Irish Pioneers offers a systematic treatment of the migration of the Scotch and English from the north of Ireland to the New World in the early eighteenth century. Bolton details the conditions in both Ireland and New England prior to the group emigrating; the main players and ships involved in the movement; and ultimately where in America the Scotch Irish settled after arriving.

Appendices include lists of ships from Ireland arriving in New England between 1714 and 1720; members of the Charitable Irish Society in Boston; existing vital records of towns in Ulster begun before 1755; home towns of Ulster families; and more. For people of Scotch Irish descent, this book provides insight into the historical context of their ancestors’ early migration as well as resources to further their own genealogical research. 2013

This enduring study of one of the earliest mass migrations to America remains an important source for twenty-first-century researchers.”

—from Marie E. Daly’s foreword

Portable Genealogist
Problem Solving in Irish Research
Marie E. Daly
8½ x 11, laminated, 4 pp.: $6.95, member $6.26

Beyond the usual problems encountered in genealogy—lost records, inaccurate indexes and transcriptions, and variant spellings (to name a few)—Irish-American research presents a unique set of obstacles. So much of Irish genealogical investigation depends on knowing the exact location of where your ancestor came from in Ireland. The prevalence of common surnames, the lack of a nationwide search capability, and faulty family tradition can make it difficult to discern your ancestor’s true origins.

Despite all of these roadblocks, there are ways to discover your ancestors’ Irish origins. This Portable Genealogist will identify some common brick walls that arise in Irish research and help you develop research strategies that will ultimately lead you to a new set of records—and perhaps even your ancestral homestead. 2013

Watch the online webinar “Getting Started in Irish Genealogy” with Marie Daly at the Online Learning Center at AmericanAncestors.org
At NEHGS, Membership Has Its Benefits

Members of NEHGS enjoy benefits including discounts on many purchases from the NEHGS Books & Gifts Catalog. We offer all active NEHGS members an opportunity to save on purchases of NEHGS-authored works and on select, custom-made gift items.

Not a member? Join today to take advantage of 10% off your purchases. To receive 20% off, join or upgrade your membership to Friend membership or higher.

To Receive Your Discount . . .
Join or Upgrade Today!

- Use the order form in this catalog
- Call us at 888-296-3447
- Email us at membership@nehgs.org
- Join online at AmericanAncestors.org/Join
The NEHGS Annual Fund

Your Gift Makes a Difference

Since 1845, the New England Historic Genealogical Society has dedicated its efforts to serving those who wish to research, document, and preserve their family stories. In order to continually enhance the accessibility of our educational programs, website, extensive collections, publications and expert genealogists, we depend on the generosity of our donors to remain the nation’s leading family history research center.

Membership dues cover less than 40% of the features and benefits members enjoy. An Annual Fund contribution supplements membership revenue and helps to ensure our capacity to continue the tradition of offering the highest standard of quality research services.

Large or small, your gift makes NEHGS stronger. We appreciate your support at any level and urge you to help us continue and expand our ability to help our members find their voice and celebrate their family legacy.

As you place an order for new items through The Bookstore at NEHGS, please consider adding your Annual Fund gift to the total!

Celebrate Your Family by Supporting NEHGS

“It was the most wonderful experience of my life. NEHGS gave me a family.”
—Rebecca McNeil
Tracing Your Irish Ancestors
4th Edition
John Grenham
Genealogical Publishing Co.; 6 x 9 pbk, 550 pp. $37.95

Tracing Your Irish Ancestors outlines the key steps of Irish research and provides an indispensable body of source materials. Updated and expanded instructions describe how to use and locate civil records, land records, wills, lists of Roman Catholic parish records, source lists, and more.

This edition also pays special attention to the Internet, serving as both a directory to online records as well as a handbook for online research strategies. An important guide for anyone with Irish ancestry. 2012

Irish City and County Guides
Flyleaf Press 6 x 9 pbk, varying page counts, illus. $22.00 each volume

Trace your Irish roots to a specific city and county with these handy guides. Learn what kind of records you will find, and where and how you can access them. Well illustrated with maps, sample records, and other relevant material, each volume also includes a comprehensive index. 1998–2012

“Well-written, concise and easy to follow . . . A most valuable contribution to Irish genealogy.” —Irish Family Links

Tracing Your Clare Ancestors
160 pp., $22.00

Tracing Your Cork Ancestors
162 pp., $22.00

Tracing Your Donegal Ancestors
161 pp., $22.00

Tracing Your Dublin Ancestors
106 pp., $22.00

Tracing Your Galway Ancestors
160 pp., $22.00

Tracing Your Kildare Ancestors
160 pp., $22.00

Tracing Your Limerick Ancestors
121 pp., $22.00

Tracing Your Roscommon Ancestors
160 pp., $22.00

Tracing Your Sligo Ancestors
160 pp., $22.00

Tracing Your Westmeath Ancestors
160 pp., $22.00
Getting Started in Jewish Genealogy
2014 Edition
Gary Mokotoff
Avotaynu; 7 x 10 pbk, 96 pp., illus.; $14.50

This handbook provides a practical foundation for getting started in Jewish genealogy. From debunking common myths to explaining a variety of online and offline resources to providing helpful research tips, this book proves that tracing one’s Jewish ancestry is possible. Appendices provide additional online search tips and a case study.

2014

see also
Immigration to the U.S. and U.S. Naturalization, p. 4

---

Blessings of Freedom
Chapters in American Jewish History
Edited by Michael Feldberg
American Jewish Historical Society; 8½ x 11 pbk, 256 pp., illus.; $23.95

Since 1997, the American Jewish Historical Society has published a weekly feature entitled “Chapters in American Jewish History.” This volume comprises 120 of the best “vignettes,” organized according to subject and period. An illuminating glimpse into the American Jewish story.

2002

---

NEHGS and AJHS expand partnership

Three years after initiating a collaborative partnership, NEHGS and the American Jewish Historical Society (AJHS) have strengthened their relationship. In May 2013, the two organizations entered into a custody agreement in which NEHGS will provide for the care, maintenance, growth, and accessibility of the AJHS–New England Archives.

“This arrangement has many benefits, not least of which are allowing the AJHS–New England Archives to benefit from additional resources through our institutional infrastructure as America’s founding genealogical society, and expanding our constituent access to important Jewish historical and genealogical research materials.”

—D. Brenton Simons
The Last Muster
Volumes 1 and 2
Kent State Univ. Press; 9 x 7 hcvr, illus.; $45 each
In this collection of rare 19th-century photographic images of the Revolutionary War generation, Maureen Taylor assigns faces to an unillustrated war and tells the stories of our nation’s founding fathers and mothers. Volume 2 continues the author’s contribution to the history of the American Revolution, the early Republic, and photography. Through these portraits and the accompanying narrative, readers have the opportunity to relive the Revolutionary War. 2010, 2013

“An amazing photographic addition to the history of the early Republic.”
—Dead Fred’s Relatively Speaking, www.DeadFred.com

Finding the Civil War in Your Family Album
Picture Perfect Press; 7 x 10 pbk, 192 pp., illus. $24.99
A Civil War-era photograph in your family album, be it a man in uniform or a woman posing with her children, tells the story of your family’s involvement in a critical period of history. This book trains you to study the photo’s work dates, tax stamps, clothing style, and military dress to help you determine and verify the picture’s authenticity. 2011

“If you have Civil War era ancestors in your family you, will find this book a welcome and beneficial addition to your library.”
—Marian’s Roots and Ramblings

Family Photo Detective
Family Tree Books; 8½ x 11 pbk, 176 pp., illus. $26.99
Preserving Your Family Photographs
Picture Perfect Press; 8 x 10 pbk, 206 pp., illus. $24.99
Fashionable Folks: Bonnets and Hats, 1840-1900
Picture Perfect Press; 6 x 9 pbk, 176 pp., illus. $19.95
Fashionable Folks: Hairstyles 1840-1900
Picture Perfect Press; 6 x 9 pbk, 125 pp., illus. $26.99
The History and Antiquities of Boston
From Its Settlement in 1630, to the Year 1770
Samuel G. Drake
Foreword by D. Brenton Simons
6 x 9 pbk, 890 pp., illus.; $29.95, member $26.96
Originally published in 1856, Drake’s history of pre-Revolutionary Boston has long been a key resource for historians. From the city’s founding to its first churches, natural disasters to outbreaks, witchcraft to Freemasonry, this volume provides detailed historical context for anyone with early Boston ancestors. 2012

Reminiscences and Traditions of Boston
by Hannah Mather Crocker
Edited by Eileen Hunt Botting and Sarah L. Houser; 6 x 9 hcvr, 592 pp., illus.; $39.95, member $35.96
Published for the first time, Crocker’s early 19th-century Reminiscences offers a unique history of Boston and its environs from the 1620s to the 1820s. A women’s rights advocate and granddaughter of Cotton Mather, Crocker provides a significant resource for anyone interested in early American history. Transcribed and annotated from the original manuscript at NEHGS. 2011

Boston Beheld
Antique Town and Country Views
D. Brenton Simons
Univ. Press of New England and NEHGS
11 x 9 hcvr, 158 pp., 64 full-color illus. $35, member $31.50
This volume of full-color period images of the 18th and 19th centuries reveals sweeping vistas, lively street scenes, and elegant edifices that show Boston as a youthful and vibrant town. 2008

Witches, Rakes, and Rogues
True Stories of Scam, Scandal, Murder, and Mayhem in Boston, 1630–1775
D. Brenton Simons
Commonwealth Editions; 6 x 9, 260 pp. hcvr: $24.95, pbk: $14.95
Meet the murderers, con men, witches, and other blackguards who lurked in the twisting streets of colonial Boston. Here, Simons also uncovers the truth about Boston’s first documented serial murder. 2005
Annals of Witchcraft in New England and Elsewhere in the United States
Samuel G. Drake
Foreword by D. Brenton Simons
6 x 9 pbk, 306 pp.; $17.95, member $16.16
First published in 1869, Drake’s Annals of Witchcraft outlines each instance of the “alleged operations of witches” in the United States from 1636 through 1728. Using court records, statutes, and other historic documents from New England and elsewhere, including as far away as Virginia and South Carolina, Drake shows that worries about witches were not confined to Salem. 2013

“Generations of historians have pored over original documents and developed . . . compelling theories to better explain tragic events that are at once very human and yet incomprehensible to the modern mind.”
— from D. Brenton Simons’s foreword

King Philip’s War
The History and Legacy of America’s Forgotten Conflict
Eric B. Schultz and Michael J. Tougias
Countryman Press; 6 x 9 pbk, 430 pp., illus.; $19.95

King Philip’s War (1675–1676) was one of America’s earliest wars, and it engulfed southern New England. This book, co-authored by NEHGS Trustee Eric Schultz, provides an in-depth history of the war and a guide to historical sites where raids and battles occurred. Historians, colonial war buffs, and those interested in Native American history will gain insight into these seminal events that continue to shape the American mind and continent. 1999

The Art of Family
Genealogical Artifacts in New England
D. Brenton Simons and Peter Benes, eds., with an introduction by John Demos 8½ x 10½ hcvr, 350 pp., illus.
$75, member $67.50

An indispensable resource illuminating the world of decorative arts and its relationship to family history, this book features fifteen chapters by leading authorities, including Abbott Lowell Cummings, Wendell Garrett, Maureen Taylor, Laurel Thatcher Ulrich, and others. The book contains more than 200 black and white illustrations and 16 color plates. 2002

“This book provides a solid foundation for social historians, genealogists with New England roots, or those with an interest in decorative arts of the era.”
—Library Journal
The Ancestry of Catherine Middleton
William Addams Reitwiesner
Edited by Christopher Challender Child and Scott Campbell Steward
Foreword by Gary Boyd Roberts
5 x 8 hcvr, 186 pp.; $29.95, member $26.96
This volume presents the ancestors of Catherine Middleton, Duchess of Cambridge, in traditional ahnentafel format. More than twenty charts illustrate kinships to important historical and cultural figures, including George Washington, General George S. Patton, Jr., and director Guy Ritchie. 2011

“Remarkable ... Reitwiesner’s combination of scholarship and tenacity has produced a valuable addition to the genealogy of the future British royal family. This ancestral study adds hundreds of common folk—clergymen, tradesmen, lawyers, merchants, laborers, miners, agricultural workers—ordinary citizens—to the British royal family.”
—Richard K. Evans, author of The Ancestry of Diana, Princess of Wales

The Ancestry of Diana, Princess of Wales for Twelve Generations
Richard K. Evans
6 x 9 hcvr, 584 pp., illus.; $34.95, member $31.46
This volume traces the late Princess of Wales’s ancestors from the British Isles to northern and eastern Europe as well as the United States and the Far East. Beginning with her parents as the first generation, this fully documented ancestor table includes known dates and places of birth, marriage, and death, along with other key information such as occupations and noble (or royal) titles. 2007

Royal Descents of 600 Immigrants to the American Colonies or the United States
Gary Boyd Roberts
Genealogical Publishing Co.; 6 x 9 pbk, 1,025 pp., $75
Also known as “RD600,” this key work treats 600 colonists and their royal descents. Hundreds of charts show the royal descents of immigrants who were themselves notable or whose descendants were notable. Approximately 180 of these immigrants left ten or more notable descendants each and are ancestors of more than 100 million living Americans. The source for finding “gateway ancestors” of royal descent. 2008
A Roll of Arms
Registered by the Committee on Heraldry of the New England Historic Genealogical Society
Edited by Henry L. P. Beckwith, Jr.
6 x 9 hcvr, 400 pp., illus., $34.95, member $31.46

Published for the first time as a single volume, A Roll of Arms includes illustrated shields along with a description, associated family name, and name of submitter. Incorporating installments published in the Register between 1928 and 1992, as well as previously unpublished entries, the “Roll” contains many 17th-century immigrants to the New World and is an important volume for anyone with early American ancestry. Includes color plates, index, and more. 2013

Ancestors of American Presidents
2009 Edition
Gary Boyd Roberts
6 x 9 hcvr, 864 pp., illus., $39.95, member $35.96

The 2009 edition, twice the size of the first (published in 1995), contains ancestor tables for each president from Washington to Obama; the best royal descents of each president and first lady; more than 150 charts outlining kinships between presidents; and appendixes for kin and “kin-of-kin” to Pocahontas, presidential Mayflower lines, and connections to the modern British royal family and European royal families. 2009

“[Gary Boyd Roberts’s] expertise is breathtaking, particularly regarding prominent American families and their European forebears.”
—Sam Allis, The Boston Globe

Notable Kin
Volumes One and Two
Gary Boyd Roberts
Carl Boyer 3rd; 6 x 9 hcvr, ca. 300 pages per volume, $30 each

Explore the ancestry of a host of notable figures. Volume One includes members of the British royal family and Canadian or European prime ministers; signers of the Declaration of Independence; novelists, poets, and historians; early feminists; and Civil War generals. Volume Two treats royal descents of tycoon families, numerous folkloric figures, and Hollywood actors, actresses, directors, writers, and composers. 1998, 1999

Left: The Gish sisters and Buffalo Bill Cody.
Mayflower Families
Through Five Generations
Mayflower Society; 6 x 9 hcvr, prices below

These well-known “silver books” attempt to identify the first five generations of Pilgrim descendants. 1975–2013

Alden: Vol. 16, Pt. 1, $49.95
Alden: Vol. 16, Pt. 2, $35
Alden: Vol. 16, Pt. 3, $35
Billington: Vol. 21, $30 see also Winslow
Bradford: Vol. 22, $49.95
Brown: Vol. 7, $25
Chilton: Vol. 15, $35
Doty: Vol. 11, Pt. 1, $25
Doty: Vol. 11, Pt. 2, $25
Doty: Vol. 11, Pt. 3, $25
Eaton: Vol. 9, $25
Fuller, Edward: Vol. 4, $25
Fuller, Samuel: Vol. 10, $30
Howland: Vol. 23, Pt. 1, $30
Howland: Vol. 23, Pt. 2, $35
Howland: Vol. 23, Pt. 3, $35
More see Chilton
Priest: Vol. 8, $25
Rogers: Vol. 19, $50
Samson: Vol. 20, Pt. 1, $25
Samson: Vol. 20, Pt. 2, $49.95
Samson: Vol. 20, Pt. 3, $49.95
Standish: Vol. 14, $25
Warren: Vol. 18, Pt. 1, $25
Warren: Vol. 18, Pt. 2, $25
Warren: Vol. 18, Pt. 3, $25
White: Vol. 13, $25
Winslow: Vol. 5, $25

John Howland of the Mayflower
Elizabeth Pearson White, CG, FASG, FNGS; 6 x 9 hcvr, varying page counts. Vol. 1, $90.00; Vol. 2, $52.50; Vol. 3, $90.00; Vol. 4, $37.50

This prize-winning opus by Elizabeth White documents the first five generations of documented descendants through Mayflower passenger John Howland’s four children: Desire2 and her husband Capt. John Gorham (Vol. 1); John1 Howland and his wife, Mary Lee (Vol. 2); Hope2 Howland, wife of John Chipman (Vol. 3); and Elizabeth2 Howland, wife of Ephraim Hicks and Capt. John Dickinson (Vol. 4). 1990–2008

“This work cannot be matched for its concise writing, meticulous genealogical research, precise documentation and quality printing.”

—The Pilgrim John Howland Society

Strangers and Pilgrims, Travellers and Sojourners
Leiden and the Foundation of Plymouth Plantation
Jeremy Dupertuis Bangs
General Society of Mayflower Descendants
7 x 10 hcvr, 926 pp., illus., $65

An extraordinary reassessment of the Pilgrims by Jeremy Bangs, who has spent a lifetime searching them out in Dutch, English, and American archives. 2009
2-volume set

Mayflower Births and Deaths
Susan E. Roser
Genealogical Publishing Co.; 7 x 10 pbk, 1,073 pp. in 2 vols.; $100

This resource gives data on approximately 50,000 people. Besides records of births, baptisms, deaths and burials, this work also contains references of death and residence at death as gleaned from land and will records, court and church records, transcripts of personal letters, and more. The volumes are separately indexed. 1997

Mayflower Deeds and Probates
Susan E. Roser
Genealogical Publishing Co.; 7 x 10 pbk, 660 pp.; $60

Mayflower Deeds and Probates is a compilation of deeds and probate records extracted and transcribed from the George Ernest Bowman files. These deed and will abstracts provide a goldmine of genealogical information. Primary sources are provided for nearly every record included. 1994

Mayflower Increasings
2nd Edition
Susan E. Roser
Genealogical Publishing Co.; 7 x 10 pbk, 179 pp.; $22

Mayflower Increasings summarizes all that is currently known about the passengers of the Mayflower and their descendants for the first three generations in America. Each listing in this fully indexed book includes references that will help the researcher find the fourth generation. 1995

Mayflower Marriages
From the Files of George Ernest Bowman
Susan E. Roser
Genealogical Publishing Co.; 7 x 10 pbk, 415 pp.; $52.50

This volume consists of 10,000 marriages spanning five centuries, with names, dates, and sources. Mrs. Roser shows the line of descent within each marriage, enabling readers to trace a genealogy through a marriage. Marriages are listed under the names of the respective Mayflower passengers, and all names in the book can be found in the index. 2001

Search volumes 1–45 of The Mayflower Descendant online at AmericanAncestors.org.
Genealogical Charts

Looking for well-designed, frameable, and functional charts to help you record genealogical information? Our experts recommend these easy-to-use charts, which allow you to display your family history for your own reference or to share with relatives.

3-Generation Maternal chart, 17 x 22, $5.99

3-Generation Paternal chart, 17 x 22, $5.99

Capture three generations of your maternal or paternal line using these beautifully illustrated charts. Printed on antique parchment.

5-Generation descendant chart, 14 x 25, $4.99

A cleverly designed and functional descendant chart—there isn’t a better chart than this 5-Generation Pedigree Chart to have at a family reunion!

7-Generation American Country chart
17 x 22, $5.99 (above left)

7-Generation Pennsylvania Dutch chart
17 x 22, $5.99 (above right)

Printed on antique parchment, these colorful 7-generation charts are available either in an American patchwork design or a Pennsylvania Dutch style.
9-Generation fan chart, 23 x 34, $9.99
Printed on high-quality parchment paper, this elegant nine-generation chart displays up to 511 names in a unique and attractive fan pattern. The eight closest lines are shaded for easy reference.

15-Generation descendant chart (above left) 8½ x 11, $4.99
Finally, a single chart that allows you to track more than ten generations on a single page! Generations 1–9 are on the front, and 10–15 are on the back along with plenty of space to document even more generations of long lines. This 15-generations pedigree chart is folded and hole-punched to fit into a three-ring binder.

23-Generation ahnentafel chart (above right)
28 x 40, $8.95*

38-Generation ahnentafel chart
28 x 40, $8.95*

Record both sides of your family for several generations with these ahnentafel charts. Vertically displayed, printed in black ink on white paper.

This chart is mailed in a tube, which incurs an additional mailing cost.

NEHGS jute bag
$7.99, member $7.19
This eco-friendly tote bag has been custom-designed for NEHGS with the Society’s new logo. The bag features our American Ancestors brand name on one side and traditional seal and name on the other. Made using natural hemp plant fiber and braided rope for the handles—imprinted in dark blue—perfect for the library, the beach, or on the go! 13 x 8 x 14.
The Folger Family Tree (above left)
$9.95, member $8.96
This color reprint of the Folger Family Tree, showing the descendants of Peter Folger of Nantucket, measures 12 x 18 and is printed on heavy stock. Shipped in tube.

The Lathrop Family Tree (above right)
$9.95, member $8.96
The Lathrop Family Tree was “collected and arranged” by John Lathrop and originally printed in Buffalo, New York, in 1867. This detailed chart documents descendants of Reverend John Lathrop (also Lothrop), who arrived from England 28 September 1634; settled in Scituate, Mass.; and died 8 November 1653. This high-quality full-color reproduction measures 19 x 29 and is shipped in its own tube.

Note cards
$8.50, member $7.65
Beautiful images of actual heritage family documents from the NEHGS manuscripts collection adorn these full-color notecards. You’ll find yourself reaching for them again and again for thankyou notes, a quick “hi” to cousins, genealogical inquiries, or stocking stuffers. In sets of eight cards (two each of four different designs) with cream-colored envelopes. 4½ x 5½.
The Nelson Family of Rowley, Massachusetts
Christopher C. Child
6 x 9 hcvr, 650 pp., illus., $64.95, member $58.46

In 1638, Thomas Nelson traveled with the Rev. Ezekiel Rogers and his company from Rowley, Yorkshire, to settle Rowley, Massachusetts. This genealogy treats several generations of Nelson descendants and provides new insight into Thomas’s possible ancestry at Drax, Yorkshire. An abnenetafel for Philip Stapleton, the maternal grandfather of Thomas1 and Philip2 Nelson, is also included, indicating each way he descends from Edward I and Edward III of England. Appendixes provide additional historical context regarding the establishment of Rowley, Massachusetts, and discuss the royal line of Dorothy Stapleton, Thomas Nelson’s first wife. 2014

Ancestors and Descendants of George Rufus Brown and Alice Nelson Pratt
Christopher C. Child; Patricia Law Hatcher, FASG, FGSP; and Kelvin L. Meyers
7 x 10 hcvr, 500 pp., illus., $59.95, member $53.96

This book is a testament to the lives and legacies of George Rufus Brown of Brown & Root, and his wife, Alice Nelson (Pratt) Brown. The book treats each of their parents and their allied families: Braun/Brown, King, Pratt, Nelson, and many others. Here you will read their family stories, from their first ancestors to their descendants. Illustrated boxed inserts provide historical context and a greater understanding of the families’ involvement in the course of American history. 2013

Ancestors of Hartley Rogers and Amy Churchill Falls
Christopher Challender Child
6 x 9 hcvr, 250 pp., illus., $39.95, member $35.96

This upcoming Newbury Street Press book comprises two ancestor tables: one for Hartley Raymond Rogers, whose earliest American ancestors were Edward Doty and Francis Eaton of the Mayflower, and one for Hartley’s wife, Amy Churchill Falls, who counts Richard Warren of the Mayflower among her forebears. With roots going back to Edward I of England and to France, Denmark, Germany, and Greece, Hartley and Amy each have deep and interesting stories. 2015
Abraham Family of Lengerich, Germany, and the Abrams Family of America
Barbara B. Brown
Edited by Patricia Law Hatcher, FASG
6 x 9 hcvr, 159 pp., illus., 2008; $39.95, member $35.96

The Arnolds of Smithfield, R.I.
Richard H. Benson
6 x 9 hcvr, 652 pp., illus., 2009; $39.95, member $35.96

The Avery Family
Ancestors and Descendants of Christopher Avery
Maureen A. Taylor
6 x 9 hcvr, 128 pp., illus., 2004; $40, member $36

Some Descendants of Roger Billings of Dorchester, Mass.
Helen Schatvet Ullmann, CG, FASG
6 x 9 hcvr, 356 pp., illus., 2012; $39.95, member $35.96
Winner, 2013 National Genealogical Society Award for Excellence

History of the Brigham Family
Descendants of Thomas Brigham
Compiled by Rhonda R. McClure
7 x 10 hcvr, 1008 pp., 2010; $84.95, member $76.46

Descendants of Nathan Brown of Newberry Co., S.C., Preble Co., Ohio, Coweta Co., Ga., and Warren Co., Ill.
Marsha Hoffman Rising, CG, FASG
6 x 9 hcvr, 516 pp., 2010; $49.95, member $44.96

Descendants of Richard Coman of Salem, Mass., and Providence, R.I.
Shirley Louise Purtell Bickel with Helen Schatvet Ullmann, CG, FASG
6 x 9 hcvr, 880 pp., 2006; $60, member $54

Dr. John Durand of Derby, Conn.
Alvy Ray Smith, FASG; 7 x 10 hcvr, 592 pp., illus., 2003 $50, member $45
Winner, 2004 National Genealogical Society’s Award for Excellence

Royal and Noble Ancestry of Edward III, King of England
A London Family Lineage
Dr. J. Phillip London; 6 x 9 hcvr, 464 pp., illus., 2012 $64.95, member $58.46

Descendants of Judge John Lowell of Newburyport, Massachusetts
Scott C. Steward and Christopher C. Child
7 x 10 hcvr, 600 pp., illus., 2011; $74.95, member $67.46
Winner, 2012 National Genealogical Society’s Award for Excellence; Connecticut Society of Genealogists’ Literary Award; and Donald Lines Jacobus Award
Carl Boyer, 3rd
6 x 9 hcvr, 832 pp., 2014; $64.95, member $58.46
This new book is the result of fifteen more years of research since publication of the third edition in 1998. The 232 families treated, from the northeast and western Europe, include the surnames Abell, Alsop, Andrews, Anthony, Avery, Babcock, Ballard, Bassett, and many more. Includes bibliography and indexes of names, places, and ships. 2014

Ancestry of Russell Makepeace of Marion, Mass. 1904–1986
Zelinda Makepeace Douhan
6 x 9 pbk, 374 pp., 2005; $29.95, member $26.96

Descendants of John Mills of Stamford, Conn.
Helen Schatvet Ullmann, CG, FASG
6 x 9 hcvr, 568 pp., 2010; $44.95, member $40.46

So Proudly We Hail Ancestors and Descendants of Harold and Elsie Cole (Whipple) Morgan
Janice Morgan Seligman
Edited by Christopher C. Child
6 x 9 hcvr, 480 pp., illus., 2011; $49.95, member $44.96

Ancestry of Joseph Fletcher Parker of Duluth, Minn.
Marian Parker Congdon
6 x 9 hcvr, 128 pp., 2006; $35, member $31.50

Pierponts of Roxbury, Mass.
Helen Schatvet Ullmann, CG, FASG
6 x 9 hcvr, 190 pp., 2007; $39.95, member $35.96

Read Family of Salem, Mass.
Richard H. Benson
6 x 9 hcvr, 400 pp., 2005; $40, member $36
Winner, Donald Lines Jacobus Award

Elder Bethuel Riggs of Morris Co., New Jersey
Alvy Ray Smith, FASG
7 x 10 hcvr, 762 pp., illus., 2006; $60, member $54
Winner, Donald Lines Jacobus Award

Descendants of Dr. Nathaniel Saltonstall of Haverhill, Mass.
Scott C. Steward
7 x 10 hcvr, 400 pp., illus., 2013; $49.95, member $44.96

Eben W. Graves
6 x 9 hcvr, 504 pp., illus., 2008; $59.95, member $53.96

Trimble Family
Descendants of Joseph Trimble of Penn. and Md.
Genealogy by Patricia Law Hatcher, FASG, FGSP
6 x 9 hcvr, 144 pp., illus., 2007; $39.95, member $35.56

Nicholas Wade Family
Richard H. Benson
6 x 9 hcvr, 320 pp., illus., 2012; $44.95, member $40.46

1-888-296-3447 | AmericanAncestors.org/Store
Winslow Families of Worcestershire, 1400–1700
Brandon Fradd
6 x 9 hcvr, 340 pp., 2009; $44.95, member $40.46

Ancestry of Helen Marion (Locke) Wright
Researched by Helen Marion (Locke) Wright, edited and updated by Aaron Goodwin, Patricia Law Hatcher, FASG, FGSP, and Michael J. Leclerc
6 x 9 hcvr, 160 pp., 2011; $44.95, member $40.46

see also

Mayflower Family Resources, pp. 33–34

A Family Becoming American
David Watson Kruger
Vol. 1: Kruger; 6 x 9 hcvr, 842 pp., illus., 2009; $49.95, member $44.96
Vol. 2: Foisy dit Freniere/Frenyear; 6 x 9 hcvr, 1,065 pp. in 2 bks., illus., 2012; $74.95, member $67.46

Award-winning author David Watson Kruger traced his and his wife’s great-great-grandparents, from the beginning of the nineteenth century, in the multi-volume A Family Becoming American.

Belange, Cresson, Delaplaine, Diament, and Smith Seventeenth-Century Immigrants to N.Y., Penn., and N.J.
Patricia Law Hatcher, FASG, FGSP
6 x 9 hcvr, 216 pp., 2011; $59.95, member $53.96

Keane and Sheahan Families of Bridgeport, Conn.
D. Joshua Taylor
6 x 9 hcvr, 350 pp., illus., 2013; $44.95, member $40.46

Six generations of the Keane family from County Clare and Bridgeport, with detailed narrative and family stories.

Ringing the Gotchnag Two American Missionary Families in Turkey, 1855–1922
Jonathan C. Page
Foreword by Peter J. Gomes
6 x 9 hcvr, 366 pp., illus., 2008; $39.95, member $35.96

Tells the stories of the Allens and Wheelers, American missionary families who served in the Ottoman Empire.

More Lasting than Brass A Thread of Family from Revolutionary N.Y. to Industrial Conn.
Peter Haring Judd
Foreword by Alan Taylor
NSP and Northeastern Univ. Press 6 x 9 hcvr, 640 pp., 2004; $50, member $45

Early Families of Hull, Mass.
Ethel Farrington Smith
6 x 9 pbk, 266 pp., 2007; $24.95, member $22.46
INDEX

Genealogies are listed alphabetically by surname. See table of contents (p. 1) for subject categories.

| A | Abraham Family of Lengerich, Germany . . . (Brown), 39 |
|   | African American Resources at NEHGS, 22 |
|   | Ancestors of American Presidents (Roberts), 32 |
|   | Ancestors of Hartley Rogers and Amy Churchill Falls (Child), 38 |
|   | Ancestral Lines: 32 Families (Boyer), 40 |
|   | Annals of Witchcraft (Drake), 30 |
|   | Applying to Lineage Societies (Fulton), 4 |
|   | Arnolds of Smithfield, R.I. (Benson), 39 |
|   | Art of Family (Simons, Benes), 30 |
|   | Avery Family (Taylor), 39 |
|   | Belange, Cresson, Delaplaine, Diament, and Smith (Hatcher), 41 |
|   | Best Genealogical Sources in Print (Roberts), 4 |
|   | Roger Billings of Dorchester, Mass., Some Descendants of (Ullmann), 39 |
|   | Black Families in Hampden Co., Mass. (Carvalho), 22 |
|   | Blessings of Freedom (Feldberg), 27 |
|   | Bond’s Genealogies and History of Watertown, Mass., 16 |
|   | Bonnets and Hats (Taylor), 25 |
|   | Boston Beheld (Simons), 29 |
|   | Brigham Family, History of (McClure), 39 |
|   | George Rufus Brown and Alice Nelson Pratt, Ancestors and Descendants of (Child, Hatcher, Meyers), 38 |
|   | Nathan Brown of Newberry Co., S.C. . . . , Descendants of (Rising), 39 |
|   | Building a Genealogical Sketch (Stratton), 5 |
|   | Cambridge Cameos (Thompson), 16 |
|   | Classic Reprints, 7 |
|   | Colonial New York Records (Hoff), 44 |
|   | Colony of Conn. Minutes of the Court of Assistants (Ullmann), 17 |
|   | Richard Coman of Salem, Mass. . . . , Descendants of (Bickel, Ullmann), 39 |
|   | Complete Great Migration Newsletter (Anderson), 6 |
|   | Diana, Princess of Wales, Ancestry of (Evans), 31 |
|   | Diaries in the R. Stanton Avery Special Collections, 7 |
|   | Dictionary of American-Indian Place and Proper Names (Douglas-Lithgow), 13 |
|   | DNA USA (Sykes), 6 |
|   | Documents of Our Ancestors (Meshenberg), 24 |
|   | Dr. John Durand of Derby, Conn., and His Family (Smith), 39 |
|   | Early Families of Hull, Mass. (Smith), 41 |
|   | An Early History of Boston (Aspinwall), 15 |
|   | Editorial Stylesheet (Stratton), 5 |
|   | Elements of Genealogical Analysis (Anderson), 3 |
|   | Expansion of New England (Mathews), 21 |
|   | Family Becoming American, Vol. 1: Kruger (Kruger), 41 |
|   | Family Becoming American, Vol. 2: Frenyear (Kruger), 41 |
|   | Family Photo Detective (Taylor), 28 |
|   | Family Trees (Weil), 6 |
|   | Fashionable Folks (Taylor), 28 |
|   | Finding the Civil War in Your Family Album (Taylor), 28 |
|   | Founders of New England (Drake), 12 |
|   | Frenyear, Family Becoming American, Vol. 2 (Kruger), 41 |
|   | From Deference to Defiance (Thompson), 16 |
|   | Genealogical charts, 35 |
|   | Genealogical Dictionary of Maine and New Hampshire (Noyes, Libby, Davis), 18 |
|   | Genealogical Notes: First Settlers of Conn. and Mass. (Goodwin), 17 |
|   | Genealogical Numbering, (Stratton), 5 |
|   | Genealogist’s Handbook for Irish Research (Daly, Lucey), 44 |
|   | Genealogist’s Handbook for New England Research (Leclerc), 11 |
|   | Getting Started in Jewish Genealogy (Mokotoff), 27 |
|   | Great Migration (1634–1635) (Anderson), 8 |
|   | Great Migration Begins (1620–1633) (Anderson), 8 |
|   | Great Migration Directory (Anderson), 9, 44 |
|   | Great Migration Newsletter, 10 |
|   | Guide to Genealogical Writing (Hoff, Stratton), 5 |
|   | A Guide to Massachusetts Public Records (Wright), 15 |
|   | Hairstyles (Taylor), 28 |
|   | Hartford Co., Conn., County Court Minutes (Ullmann), 17 |
|   | History and Antiquities of Boston (Drake), 29 |
|   | History and Antiquities of Every Town in Massachusetts (Barber), 14 |
|   | History of Ancient Families of New Amsterdam and New York (Purple), 19 |
|   | John Howland of the Mayflower (White), 33 |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Immigration to the U.S., (McClure)</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>In Search of Our Roots (Gates)</td>
<td>23</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Indexing (Weston)</td>
<td>44</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Indian Deeds (Bangs)</td>
<td>16</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Irish City and County Guides,</td>
<td>26</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Keane and Sheahan Families of Bridgeport, Conn. (Taylor)</td>
<td>41</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>King Philip’s War (Schultz, Tougas)</td>
<td>30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Krüger, Family Becoming American, Vol. 1 (Krüger)</td>
<td>41</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Last Muster (Taylor)</td>
<td>28</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Judge John Lowell of Newburyport, Mass., Descendants of (Steward, Child)</td>
<td>39</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Russell Makepeace, Ancestry of (Douhan)</td>
<td>40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Manuscripts at NEHGS,</td>
<td>7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Massachusetts Cemeteries (Lambert)</td>
<td>16</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Massachusetts State Census (Lambert)</td>
<td>14</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mayflower Births and Deaths (Roser)</td>
<td>34</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mayflower Deeds and Probates (Roser)</td>
<td>34</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mayflower Families Through Five Generations</td>
<td>33</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mayflower Increasing (Roser)</td>
<td>34</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mayflower Marriages (Roser)</td>
<td>34</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Catherine Middleton, Ancestry of (Reitwiesner)</td>
<td>31</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>John Mills of Stamford, Conn., Descendants of (Ullmann)</td>
<td>40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>More Lasting than Brass (Judd)</td>
<td>41</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Harold and Elsie Cole (Whipple) Morgan, So Proudly We Hail: Ancestors and Descendants of (Seligman)</td>
<td>40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>U.S. Naturalization (McClure)</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nelson Family of Rowley, Mass. (Child)</td>
<td>38</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>New England Captives Carried to Canada (Coleman)</td>
<td>13</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>New England Marriages Prior to 1700 (Torrey)</td>
<td>12</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>New Englanders in the 1600s (Hollick)</td>
<td>11</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>New York Essays (Henry)</td>
<td>20</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>New York State Census (Child)</td>
<td>19</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>New York State Probate Records (Remington)</td>
<td>20</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notable Kin (Roberts)</td>
<td>32</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Opening the Ozarks (Rising)</td>
<td>21</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Organizing Your Research (McClure)</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Original Lists of Persons of Quality (Hotten)</td>
<td>12</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Joseph Fletcher Parker, Ancestry of (Congdon)</td>
<td>40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pierponts of Roxbury, Mass. (Ullmann)</td>
<td>40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pilgrim Migration (Anderson)</td>
<td>9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pioneers of Maine and New Hampshire (Pope)</td>
<td>18</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pioneers of Massachusetts (Pope)</td>
<td>14</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Planters of the Commonwealth (Banks)</td>
<td>12</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Portable Genealogists,</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Preserving Your Family Photographs (Taylor)</td>
<td>28</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Problem Solving in Irish Research (Daly)</td>
<td>23</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Published Genealogies in the Library of NEHGS, Guide to</td>
<td>7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Read Family of Salem, Mass. (Benson)</td>
<td>40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Reminiscences and Traditions of Boston by Hannah Mather Crocker (Botting, House)</td>
<td>29</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Elder Bethuel Riggs of Morris Co., N.J. . . . (Smith)</td>
<td>40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ringing the Gotchnag (Page)</td>
<td>41</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Roll of Arms (NEHGS)</td>
<td>32</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Royal and Noble Ancestry of Edward III (London)</td>
<td>39</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Royal Descents of 600 Immigrants to the American Colonies or the U.S. (Roberts)</td>
<td>31</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dr. Nathaniel Saltonstall of Haverhill, Mass., Descendants of (Steward)</td>
<td>40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Scotch Irish Pioneers (Bolton)</td>
<td>23</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Settlers of the Beekman Patent (Doherty)</td>
<td>20</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Seventeenth-Century New England Research (Dearborn)</td>
<td>13</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Henry Sewall, Descendants of (Graves)</td>
<td>40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Soldiers in King Philip’s War (Bodge)</td>
<td>13</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stamford Town Records (Finch)</td>
<td>17</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Strangers and Pilgrims, Travellers and Sojourners (Bangs)</td>
<td>33</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tracing Your Irish Ancestors (Grenham)</td>
<td>26</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Trimble Family (Hatcher)</td>
<td>40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Twenty Families of Color in Mass. (Dorman)</td>
<td>22</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Using DNA in Genealogy (Child)</td>
<td>6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nicholas Wade Family (Benson)</td>
<td>40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Western Mass. Families in 1790 (Ullmann)</td>
<td>15</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Winslow Families of Worcestershire (Fradd)</td>
<td>41</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Winthrop Fleet (Anderson)</td>
<td>9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Witches, Rakes, and Rogues (Simons)</td>
<td>29</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Helen Marion (Locke) Wright, Ancestry of (Wright, Goodwin, Hatcher, Leclerc)</td>
<td>41</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
From noted author and genealogist Robert Charles Anderson, Director of the Great Migration Study Project

The Great Migration Directory

Immigrants to New England, 1620-1640
A Concise Compendium

Robert Charles Anderson, FASG
6 x 9 hcvr, 600 pp.; $64.95, member $58.46

An important new reference work, listing the name of all known to have come to New England during the Great Migration. Each entry will give the name of the head of household, English origin (if known), date of migration, principal residences in New England, and the best available bibliographic citation for each. Spring 2015.

---

The definitive guide to Irish research by staff experts!

Genealogist’s Handbook for Irish Research
Marie E. Daly and Judith Lucey
7 x 10 pbk, 300 pp.; $24.95, member $22.46

This indispensable how-to guide will help you delve deeper into your Irish ancestry. NEHGS experts Marie E. Daly and Judith Lucey tell you all you need to know: from getting started, to understanding and using different kinds of records, to planning a research trip to Ireland. This new guide will include key resources, records, repositories, and online research tips. Spring 2015.

---

MORE NEW TOPICS in the best-selling series of NEHGS Portable Genealogists

Indexing
Leslie A. Weston
8½ x 11, laminated, 4 pp.; $6.95, member $6.26

 Featuring the basic principles for genealogical indexing, including how to tag names and create an index using Microsoft Word. January 2015.

Colonial New York Records
Henry B. Hoff, CG, FASG
8½ x 11, laminated, 4 pp.; $6.95, member $6.26

NEHGS Institutional Membership

Share the joys and adventures of researching family history with your patrons!

An Institutional Membership with New England Historic Genealogical Society brings access to thousands of historic databases and millions of genealogical records directly to all of your facility terminals.

Institutional membership provides your patrons with:

- unlimited search of NEHGS databases on AmericanAncestors.org
- archived webinars to educate your patrons in the skills of genealogical research
- our award-winning quarterly periodicals, American Ancestors magazine and The New England Historical and Genealogical Register

These valuable benefits and more are included for your library or organization and for all your patrons.

Learn more at telephone 888-296-3447, ext. 1, or by email at membership@nehgs.org.
Hire the Experts.

Whether you’re just beginning your family history research or have it well underway, the NEHGS experts are here to assist you.

The skilled genealogists at NEHGS can undertake any type of research request, large or small—from breaking down “brick walls,” to creating biographical narratives of your ancestors, retrieving manuscript materials, or obtaining probate records. In addition to using all the resources in the NEHGS library, we access microfilms and records from other repositories and gather information from around the world.

Our team of experts can:

- Conduct hourly research
- Break down “brick walls”
- Research and prepare a lineage society application
- Organize your material and files
- Write narrative biographies about your ancestors
- Create customized family charts
- Obtain probate records
- Retrieve manuscript materials

Have you hit a brick wall? Do you have a puzzling research question? Let the experts help!

NEHGS hourly rates: $60/member, $80/non-member.

To hire NEHGS Research Services: Visit AmericanAncestors.org/research-services, call 617-226-1233 or email us at research@nehgs.org.
Consultations

Want to maximize your research? Schedule a consultation.

Meet one-on-one with an NEHGS genealogist. Want research guidance from a professional genealogist? Our experts provide 30-minute to two-hour consultations in person or by phone.

Find elusive ancestors—Whether you are searching in the U.S. or abroad, in the 17th or 20th century, our genealogists have the knowledge to assist you.

Locate and use records—Vital records, military records, deeds, probate, and more—if you’re wondering where to look for them, how to interpret them, or what data you can find in them, we can guide you.

Get more out of technology—Feel like you could be making better use of your genealogy software? Curious about websites and databases that might be relevant to your research? Let us help!

Feedback on our consultations:

“Thanks so much for the excellent consultation!! GREAT suggestions—just getting started but I feel like a door has been opened.”

“Thank you for the time you spent with me at NEHGS last week. I felt a warm welcome in an atmosphere of exceptional professionalism. After my visit, future contact with NEHGS will feel very personal. I am pleased with the progress we made on my research.”

“I just wanted to let you know how much I appreciate your efforts. You paid a lot of attention to the things that were a concern to me. I have a much better handle on all of that now and it is not as frustrating as it used to be. You were terrific.”

To schedule your consultation: Visit AmericanAncestors.org/library or email us at consultations@nehgs.org.
NEHGS offers a wide range of educational programs for all family history researchers, from guided tours to major genealogical repositories, to online courses and free webinars by NEHGS experts, to lectures from the world’s leading genealogists and seminars exploring a variety of topics.

Family history research is an ever-changing field. Our education programs reflect our experts’ dedication to the highest standards of scholarship and accuracy, and to providing the instruction, assistance, and support to help you discover your family’s story.

Tours and Programs coming in 2015 . . .

Washington, D.C. | February 22–March 1, 2015
Discover family history resources in the nation’s capital with NEHGS. Visit the National Archives and Records Administration, the Daughters of the American Revolution Library, and the Library of Congress during this week of guided research, individual consultations, lectures, and group events.

Hartford, Connecticut | April 7–12, 2015
Explore the repositories of Hartford at the Connecticut State Library and Connecticut Historical Society. NEHGS staff and local experts will provide consultations, lectures, and the information you need to get the most out of Hartford’s genealogical resources.

Belfast, Northern Ireland | June 21–28, 2015
Join NEHGS for our second trip to Belfast, Northern Ireland, and delve into the resources at the Public Record Office of Northern Ireland and other repositories. Track down your ancestors in Northern Ireland through individual consultations, educational opportunities, and expert assistance.

Come Home to New England | August 4–8, 2015
For more than thirty years, researchers have learned with NEHGS during Come Home to New England, an intensive workshop offering lectures, guided research, extended library hours, and one-on-one consultations. This rigorous research program provides the opportunity for you to “come home” to Boston and work closely with NEHGS staff to find your family.

And more!
Check AmericanAncestors.org/events for updated listings and registration information or contact:

NEHGS Education
617-226-1227
888-286-3447
education@nehgs.org
Since its launch in 2013, our Online Learning Center has become a go-to resource for NEHGS members and the genealogical community around the world. We offer live webinars and online courses, how-to videos, subject guides, downloads, and more on a variety of topics. Visit AmericanAncestors.org/learning-center and start learning today!

Webinars
Visit AmericanAncestors.org/online-programs to register for our free monthly webinars.

Videos
Hone your skills by watching how-to videos, archived webinars, lectures, and interviews. View a full list at AmericanAncestors.org/watch.

Subject Guides
Developed by the experts at NEHGS, our subject guides provide how-to tips, best practices, lists of key resources (in print and online), and more. View a full list at AmericanAncestors.org/read.

Downloads
Download commonly used templates to help organize your research, save time, and present your information in a consistent and accurate way. View a full list at AmericanAncestors.org/downloads.

Online Courses — exclusively for NEHGS members!
Our Online Courses offer NEHGS members a way to enhance their genealogical education through online presentations, handouts, and assessment. Can’t attend the live broadcast? You can still enroll! Course participants have access to all course materials, including a recording of the online seminar, for one month after the online presentation. To register, visit AmericanAncestors.org/online-programs.

Topics covered include:
- Irish research
- French-Canadian research
- New York resources
- Writing and publishing your family history
- German research
- Immigration and naturalization records
- Chinese-American genealogy
- Using AmericanAncestors.org
- World War veteran research
- 17th-century New England research
- English genealogy
- Japanese-American research
- Polish genealogy
New publications reflect the genealogical expertise of NEHGS!

New: Helpful new subjects in the popular NEHGS series of Portable Genealogists!
   p. 2

New: Sought-after selections in the NEHGS reprint series of Genealogical Classics!
   p. 13

New: Important publications in development at NEHGS—take a peek at what's coming!
   p. 46

>> Order online at AmericanAncestors.org/store